~ When Tomorrow Starts Without Me ~

When tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not there to see; The sun will rise and find your eyes, All filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, I know how much you love me, As much as I love you, And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me. Please try to understand That an angel came and called my name She said my place was ready, in Heaven far above, And that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love. I thought about our lives together, I know you must be sad, I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had. But then I walked through Heaven's gate, And felt so much at home; As God looked down and smiled at me, From his beautiful golden throne. He said, "This is eternity, And now we welcome you, Today your life on earth is past, But here it starts anew. So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart.

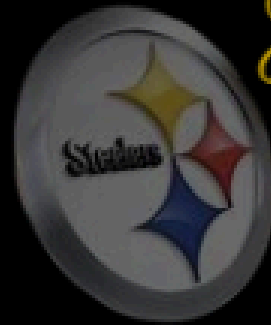

For every time you think of me, I'm right there, in your heart.

Life' Reflections

"EDMUND FIELDS"

Edmund Fields, 55, passed away on February 28, 2026 at Saint Luke's on the Plaza in Kansas City, MO.

He was born on August 3, 1970 in Kansas City, MO to William M. Fields and Mary A. Fields.

He grew up in Kansas City, MO.

He graduated from Southeast High School in Kansas City, MO. He began work at UPS as a loader where he worked for 27 years.

He married Maria on October 10, 2009 in Kansas City, MO. They were happily married for 16 years.

Edmund is preceded in death by his mother Mary, his father William and his sister Connie.

He is survived by his wife Maria; his brothers Brian, William (Datmetra), Gary, James, and Howard (Carolyn); his sisters Helen, Melody, and Jackie.

Ed was a hardworking man. He was kindhearted and a protector of his family. He was a gentle giant with a hard exterior. Ed will be greatly missed and loved by his family and friends. Especially by the kids who called him their favorite uncle.

Ed I will love you forever and miss you. You will always be in my heart forever until we meet again.
