THE LIFE STORY OF TYRESS

Carter Obituary

Saturday, August 25, 1962 was not the average day for Mary Carter, because on this day she gave birth to her sixth child, Tyress. As a child Tyress was a take charge type of child.

He grew up with a house full of brothers and knew all the things boys should and would do.

He attended the Newark Public School system.

When time came for him to attend high school he went to Central High School where he played basketball from freshman year until senior year. He was not the average basketball player either. When he played, he played. He was a force to be reckoned with. I mean this guy did things with the ball that you only seen on tv.

He went on to graduate from Central in 1980, He played in numerous leagues like "Surprise", where they named him WORLD, and the Branch Brook Basketball league just to name a few.

He was employed by the City of Newark DORCA before working with the sanitation department.

Soon after he began having health problems and eventually received a kidney transplant which gave him a new lease on life. He never let anything get him down. Through it all, He kept pushing.

Tyress leaves to mourn his passing, his children, Tyress, Ivanna, Daman, Tiffany and Ymari(Bre), Grandchildren, Tanaya, Alexis, Nyiemah, Arianna, Robert, Nyomii, Karter and Allijah, brothers, Keith, Bruce, Craig, Darryl and Garrett Carter, other relatives, co workers and friends.

He was predeceased by his mother Mary Carter, brother Thomas Carter and granddaughter Ayana.

Lovingly Submitted,

Tributes

To Daddy (My Twin)

Hey father! Lol I know you always hated when I called you that, but I want you to know that I love you and I miss you. It hurts to know that I won't see you or hear your voice anymore. But I know for sure that you are living through me and will be here in spirit, daddy I'm going to make sure your name live forever. I'm going to continue to be strong and keep the family together. You got my word old man, and I just want you to know that it's never a goodbye you know we don't say that. It's always see you later fathead! Watch over me, your grandkids and my siblings. Forever your white girl until we meet again! I love you dad

To Pops

My pops was a man who loved the world
He did his best for boys or girls
Man or women if he had he'll give
A man I know who love all his kids
No love was greater we all was deamed equal
And now a new life begins enjoy your new sequel
Just wish i had more time to hold and endure
Wish i would have kalled more now thats for sure
But thru it all i wish to say
I love you Popz for all my days

Love Daman

To Dad

My father was a fun, family oriented, easy going, loving person. He was stubborn and strong willed, but a big push over for his grandkids. He would listen and help you through bad times as well as laugh with you through the good times. I am thankful that your grandchildren were able to know and love you as I did. I'm going to miss you old man.

Love Tyress

Hey Mr. Carter,

LOL! You loved when I called you that. From checking up on you, making sure you ate, texting or calling just to say "I love you" or just getting on your nerves you loved all of that. You loved when I would play fight w/ you, starting w/ you saying "You old now, you anit got it, and you would follow up w/ "I'll knock ya white self out you better stop playing w/ me". Call me to you to act like you wanted to show me something and soon as I got close you'll put me in a choke hold. LOL. You was a slick man and good at what you do. You definitely catching these hands now my man. LOL. I love you for all that you did and even more for just being there. I love you even more for loving and caring for your grand-daughters the way you did. I wish we could have had more time but I'm truly grateful for our time well spent. You was my mans 100 grand don't ever forget that. We love you forever & always and even more after that. See you later

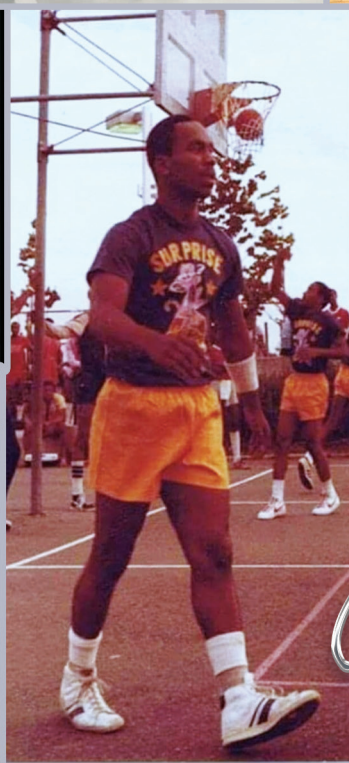

Ya NuNu, MuMu & Pumpkin

To Daddy

I truly don't know what to say because it hurts. But I want you to know that I love you so much. Thank you for being a great dad, thank you for being a true friend, thank you for everything and more. I love you dad.

Forever your baby girl Bre
