She Is Gone

You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back Or you can do what she would want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

To my best friend

Bernie fussing, each day with you was special,

it's hard to express,

I loved your voice, smile, laugh, and your sweet tenderness.

Your joyful, free spirit was such a contagious one,

A minute in your presence was bursting with fun.

I always enjoy our talks when we would speak,

It's heartbreaking to realize you're not within my reach.

You were so amazing and beautiful in so many ways, Sincere, giving, and loving through all of your days.

I wish I could hug you right now, why did you have to go?

These days are hard without you but this you should know, when the day comes to join you in that heavenly place, A beautiful smile for the ages will be on my face!

From your sister
Barbara

HER Journey

Honoring
THE LIFE OF

Bernadette Harry

Bernadette Regina Harry, devoted daughter of the late Johnny J and Ruby Mae Richardson, was born July 23 1953 and departed this life on October 25, 2022. Bernadette, mostly known as "Bernie or B" will be truly missed. To know her was to love her, from the way she talked down to her walk.

Bernie had a smile that could bring sunshine to your day with her overwhelming free personality. She had a special understanding that was shared with all who loved her. Her relationship with her family and friends was one of true love, but nothing could compare to the relationship she shared with her brothers and sisters. No matter what life's reflections have portrayed, let the love and wild spirit Bernadette stood for remain with us, in our hearts and memories. Bernadette was educated in the Baltimore City public school system. She worked a variety of different jobs throughout her life and traveled all around the world experiencing the best life had to offer. She was well known for her cooking and her Oldies but goodies music.

Proceeding her in death was her Parents Johnny and Ruby, Her son Darren and husband Carl. Also proceeding her were her siblings Adda, Harriett, Dorothy, (living: Big Juice) Carl, Timmy and Big Abram.

Bernadette leaves behind her siblings John (Debbie), Barbara, Carolyn, (late William), Herman (Gail), and Kim (Omar).

She will be leaving to mourn a host of many family and friends.

To A Dear Aunt,

We love you so very much and will cherish our beloved memories.

A.. always the one ready to ride.
U.. under the weather you always tried N.. never did you not take our side.
T.. together being wild, showing out pride.
I.. inspite of your suffering ,you rarely cried E..every moment spent with you gives the rest of us strength inside.

AUNTIE we will miss you, but now you are free, its only smooth sailing ahead so let your wings glide.
