Miss Me, But Let Me Go

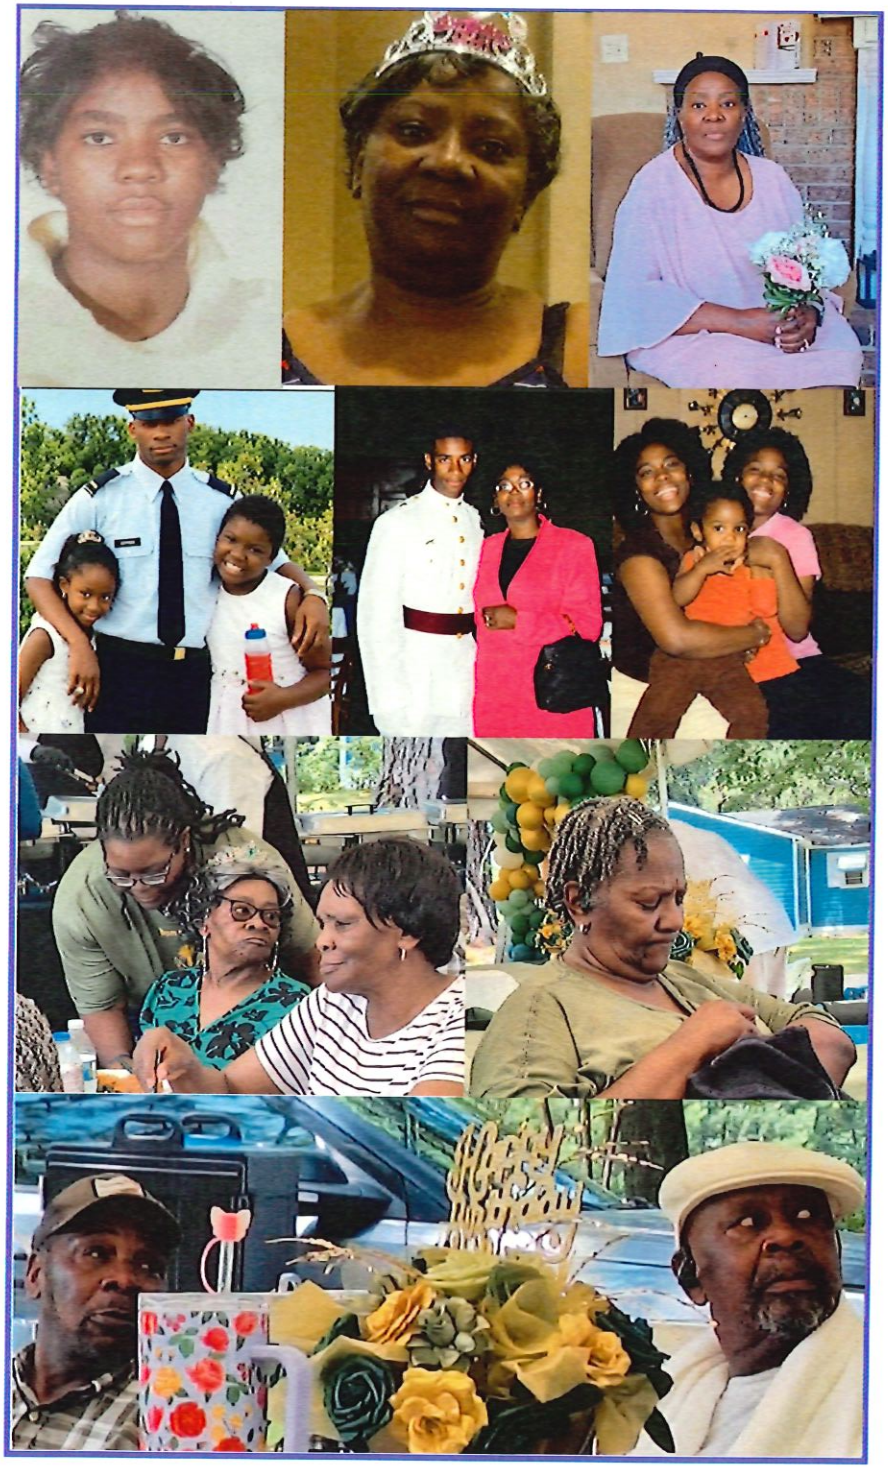

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Mrs. Mary Coaxum-Jones, daughter of Reverend Rebecca C Scott and the late Benjamin Coleman, was born August 14, 1957, in Charleston, South Carolina. She departed this life on Wednesday, October 14, 2026.

Mary grew up in Mount Pleasant, South Carolina. She was a proud graduate of Cainhoy High School. She later went on to join the Armed Forces (Navy). She later received her Master's Degree from the University of Phoenix.

Mary worked at Emory Hospital (Georgia) as a patient access representative and retired in August 2021. She moved home to Walterboro, SC to be with her family. She worked part-time at Colleton Regional Hospital as a patient access representative until her passing. Mary was happy and a delight to be around. She was loved by everyone. Her affectionate smile drew everyone towards her. She was always willing to help everyone. She had a love for her family and could not wait until the family "get-togethers" at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Mary leaves to cherish her memory, her husband: Arthur Jones; son: Anthony Coaxum; mother: Reverend Rebecca C. Scott; grandson: Dura'n Coaxum; two greatgrandchildren: Nyomie and Devontae Coaxum; three sisters: Adalia Porcher (Randolph), Brenda Washington (Marcus), and Carolyn Eakins (Stacey); three brothers: Kenneth Scott, Timothy Scott and Anthony Scott; four aunts: Mazie Brown, Katie Rivers, Adelle Coaxum, and Rev. Eleanor Ellington (Wilbur); four uncles: Edward Coaxum, Jr. (Edith), John Coaxum, Joseph Coaxum (Mary), Elijah Coaxum (Benita); and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
