The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Becky Joan Campbell was born on February 21, 1962, in Milbank, SD. She was the daughter of Joan Jeanine (Miller) and Dean Mors. She grew up in South Shore and graduated from South Shore High School with the Class of 1980.

On September 19, 1981, she was united in marriage with Curtis Jerald Campbell in Brookings, SD. Together, they were blessed with 42 years of marriage and one son, Curtis Jerald Campbell II.

Becky was a tremendous volunteer. She was involved with South Shore Community Development and was the Chairman of the South Shore Hee-Haw Show. She wrote, directed, and produced the comedy show on her own for two years. She worked at Reliabank in Watertown, SD, for 21 years and cherished her friendships with her coworkers.

One of her favorite things to do was to be outside - in her garden and barefoot. She enjoyed lawn mowing and yardwork. She encouraged everyone to join her in the great outdoors. She had an adventurous side and convinced Curt to go on a submarine excursion while on a cruise. She didn't waste a single minute on that trip. She could easily turn a bad time into a good time. You would have fun with her whether you wanted to or not.

Becky loved animals. She adored her many cats, and she even had a beloved pet duck as a child. In her younger years, she enjoyed riding horses. She had a huge heart and was kind to all animals. In her later years, she enjoyed traveling. She had the opportunity to travel across the country in a camper over the course of three weeks.

Becky is survived by her husband, Curtis Campbell of South Shore, SD; son, Curtis Campbell II of Watertown, SD; sister, Vicki Mors of Watertown, SD; nephews: Clinton Mors of Norfolk, VA; Johnny Mors of Seattle, WA; and niece, Nicolette Norton of Fargo, ND.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Dean and Joan Mors.
