

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Daria Andrea Roberta Wright was born on April 8, 1985, in Cincinnati, Ohio. She grew up with a vibrant spirit and an extraordinary intellect that would define her throughout her life. She pursued her education with determination and purpose, earning an undergraduate degree in Communications before completing her master's degree in Community Planning. Her academic achievements reflected not only her intelligence but also her deep commitment to uplifting the communities around her.

Daria was a woman of remarkable energy and warmth. Those who knew her were drawn to her outgoing personality, her positive mentality, and her genuine ability to encourage and inspire everyone she encountered. She was a natural leader, a compassionate listener, and a role model whose influence reached far beyond her immediate circle.

On October 18, 2020, Daria was initiated into Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, a milestone that held deep significance in her life. She embraced her sorority membership with the same wholehearted devotion she brought to everything she pursued. She served on several committees, including Communications and Social Media, Founders Day observances, and Heritage and Archives. She co-chaired the 51st Midwest Regional Conference, which was hosted in Columbus, Ohio, where her leadership and vision played a pivotal role. Her dedication to her sorority sisters was unwavering, and she participated in numerous events that strengthened the bonds of sisterhood and service.

Daria was also a gifted writer whose passion for the written word led her to author several published articles. She was the visionary founder, owner, and leading voice of the No Wright Way blog, a digital sanctuary formed from the belief that life is best lived through "progress over perfection."

Beyond her digital platform, Daria played an instrumental role as a leader within the international organization Wife Talk, Inc. There, she served as the first Columbus City Chapter Director and as Mid-Atlantic Regional Administrator.

Daria generously contributed her time, energy, and talents to nonprofits, as well as serving as an active team member of the Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) at her children's school. She provided thoughtful input on issues and concerns affecting students and families. Whatever the project or task, she poured her wisdom and compassion into strengthening and encouraging others.

Above all else, Daria treasured her role as a wife and mother of three. She was a supportive, loving, and devoted wife and parent who believed with her whole heart that God placed her on this earth to nurture and guide her family. She navigated the complexities of motherhood and entrepreneurship with transparency and grace.

Daria's faith was the cornerstone of her life. As a former member of Light of the World Church, she served faithfully on the Welcome Committee, greeting others with the same radiance and love that defined her character. She was a prayerful and faithful believer in Christ, and her relationship with the Lord sustained her through every season of life. Our family takes comfort in knowing that she now rests in the arms of our Savior, free from pain and filled with the eternal joy she so deeply trusted in.

Our dear Daria was, in every sense, full of life. Her spirit, her laughter, and her love will continue to shine through the countless lives she touched. She will be profoundly missed and forever remembered.

Daria Andrea Roberta Wright, beloved wife, devoted mother, loving daughter and sister, and faithful servant of Christ, passed away on March 16, 2026, surrounded by her loving family in Columbus, Ohio, after a courageous battle with cancer. She was 40 years old. She was preceded in death by her father, Reuben Darryle Branham, and other family members.

Leaving to cherish her memory are: Justen Sr. (husband), Carrington (daughter), Justen Jr. and Drake (sons), Darlene Branham (mother), Andre and Dion Branham (brothers), along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

My Wife, My Love

You were my home, my heart, my peace,
The place where all my worries ceased.
You were the light that filled my days,
The quiet strength in countless ways.

You walked beside me through the years,
Through all the laughter, all the tears.
In every season, near or far,
You loved me deeply just as you are.

Your voice still echoes in my mind,
Your gentle touch, your spirit kind.
And though my heart is torn apart,
Your love still beats within my heart.

I miss the way you said my name,
The simple things won't feel the same.
The empty chair, the silent room,
Now carry sorrow, loss, and gloom.

But even death cannot erase
The beauty of your warm embrace.
For though you've gone from earthly sight,
Your soul still shines, your love still lights.

I thank God for the years we shared,
For how you loved, for how you cared.
You were my blessing, my answered prayer,
A precious gift beyond compare.

And though I must now walk alone,
I trust one day I'll make it home.
Until we meet in Heaven above,
You'll always be my greatest love.
