A LETTER TO MY LOVING MOTHER

As I was growing up people said my mom was a very caring, loving, and genuine person. My mom had the biggest heart, She has always looked out for others before herself. She made sure others are good before herself.

One thing I know about my mother is that if we were driving or going some where and she would see a homeless person she would always have me stop so she can give them some money to help. I always said to my mom “what if they aren’t homeless ?” she would say it doesn’t matter if they aren’t homeless cause if they are not and just out here lying then god will handle them but we are not here to judge.

One thing I know about my mother is that she inspired a lot of people that she came inContact with. My mother has a good heart and she brought immense joy to everyone.

You always told me you wanted me to do better and be better then you, as I was growing up and I had accomplished all that you wanted me to be. I appreciate all the love, caring, strength, and support that you always have gave to me.

Mom, I will forever miss the long conversations that we use to have. we would be on the phone talking about anything and everything, when it is dark outside and I’m leaving your house to go home you would either stay on the phone with me till I make it in the house or you would have me call you to let you know I made it in. you would also stand by the window looking out to me to make sure I’m good.

Mom, I will also miss going to the store with you especially when we would go to TJMaxx, I miss you cussing my ass out, yelling at me when I don’t listen, and then you always up lift me.

Mom, you are the strongest person that I know, you have put up a huge fight with your cancer for 9 whole years. You didn’t even give up. All the times, you were not doing so well I was by your side through everything.

The last few months when they gave me the news that you weren't going to make it because your cancer was aggressively spreading. I was heart broken. I was mad because you wouldn't be able to see your grandson Kaiden grow up and you always said that he going to be very smart. All that matters to me now is that you were there with me while I was giving birth to Kaiden and watching him since he was a newborn. I wish you could have stayed longer. I am thankful for all the help and time that you got to cherish with Kaiden.

Mom, I thank you for always being there to protect me and my family. You have also looked out for us and helped us and I am grateful to have you in my life. My unconditional love for you will never change.

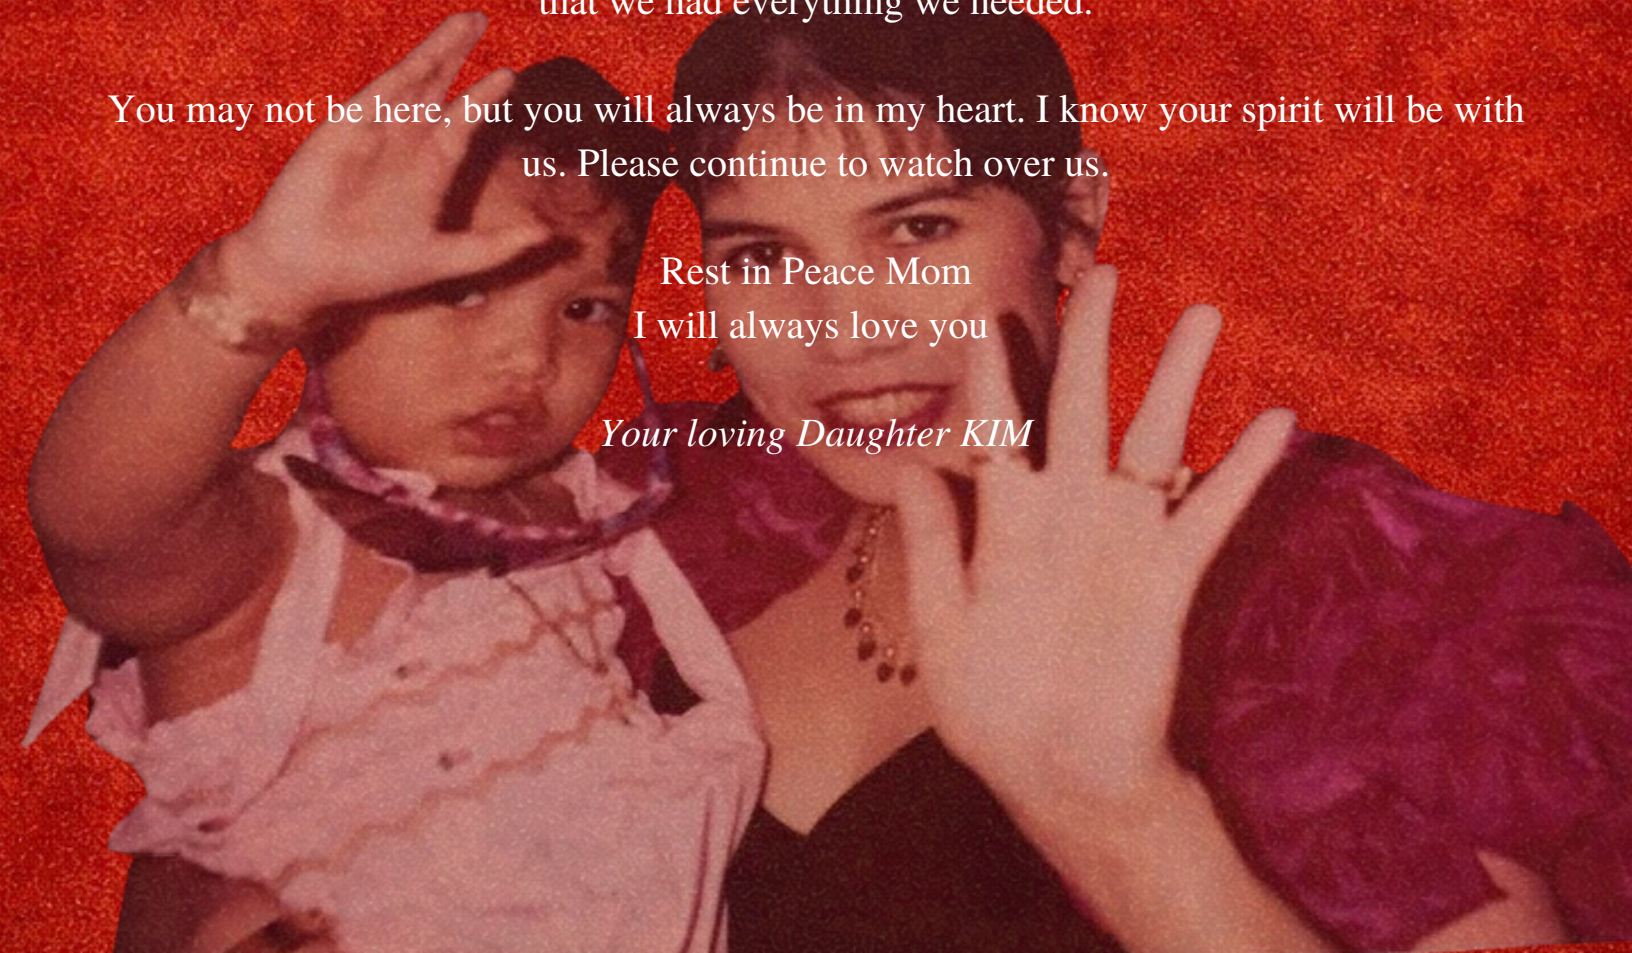

I would be selfish if I didn't want to let you go, but I had to because you were in pain. Now you are free of pain and no longer suffering. You are now in a better place with the LORD.

You are the most beautiful woman inside and out, the sacrifices you made, the strength, the pain you went through as we were growing up making sure we were all straight and that we had everything we needed.

You may not be here, but you will always be in my heart. I know your spirit will be with us. Please continue to watch over us.

Rest in Peace Mom
I will always love you

Your loving Daughter KIM

A DAUGHTER'S FAREWELL

Today I stand in quiet stillness,
With a heart full of sorrow and love.

You have left this earthly world,
And journeyed to a peaceful realm above.

You were the light of my life,
Guiding me when I lost my way.
Your love, like an endless ocean,
Remains with me every day.

Though we are now apart,
I believe you are at peace.
Following the Buddha's compassion,
Freed from suffering, in gentle release.

Your love stands vast as mountains and sky,
A debt I carry all my life.
I offer all merits from this day,
Sending them to you with endless love.

If we are bound by fate again,
May I be your child once more.

TO MY BELOVED MOTHER

I chose not to lose my mom, and instead to gain an angel. In my mind, my heart, and my life, she is still completely present to this day-and as wise, compassionate and stubborn as ever.

A mother's love is always with her children. Losing a mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. But her goodness, her caring, and her wisdom live on-like a legacy of love that will always be with you. May that love surround you now and bring you peace.

To my Sister Anh

Chi Anh was the embodiment of selflessness, a gentle soul who always placed the needs and happiness of others before her own. She gave endlessly, with a quiet strength and a generous heart, often forgetting to care for herself because her greatest joy came from caring for those around her. Her kindness, compassion, and unwavering love will forever live on in the lives she touched.
