

~ Expressions of Love ~

I couldn't have asked for any better parents. You were strict, determined, loving teachers. You made us the women my sister and I are today. You taught us to never depend on anyone, to always ensure we can handle our own. As you all know my dad left us first and my mom last. Words cannot describe how we feel. The days are definitely longer without you and at times seem to standstill, yet your soul has moved on to greener pastures. We love both of you and you will be deeply missed. Our families are stronger and more determined to succeed because of your warm loving grace and kind determination to help us succeed in life. ~ Breshenda

The days will pass and turn into years but we will forever remember you with silent tears. We love you Johnny and Vickie! Love Always, The Sims Family

We release what was and make room for what shall be as life does not end but merely transmits; that we say good bye and yet we also say hello. We say good bye to the physical focus of our relationship with our loved ones and greet the relations with their souls that have began anew. They have merely transitioned into their next form yet continue to guide and protect us in our current form just as they did in their physical form on this Earth. For this, eternally we love you and are grateful to you for without you there is no us. ~ Meat & DaeDae

~ Acknowledgment ~

The Family of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Sims are indeed grateful to each and every one of you for your kind deeds, words of comfort, phone calls, cards and the many other kind expressions of sympathy shown during our period of bereavement. We wish continued prosperity, love, peace and blessings to you and yours.

~ Celebrating the Life of John H. Sims ~

John H. Sims, also known as 'Slick' in his younger days and 'Smiley' for his infectious smile was born on April 4, 1941 to the late Duncan Sims, Jr. and Lillie Mae Riley Sims in Robinsonville, Mississippi. Johnny was baptized the 'old skool way' at an early age in the river. He was a retired welder who loved to laugh with family and friends - especially his lifelong best friend Ben 'Benji' Thomas. Him being such a cool easy going laid back person, he was truly loved by all of those whom paths he crossed. He was joined in holy matrimony with Sylvia Charley on February 18, 1995. John was a homebody that loved watching old westerns, old basketball and football games and most of all loved to fish and eat what he caught - seafood was his all time favorite.

John made his transition from this world on February 5, 2020. His siblings preceding him are: Duncan 'Fat' Sims, Jr., III, Betty Sims Harris, Ronnie Sims and Allen Sims. Continuing in his memory are: his siblings Mamie Sims, Doris Sims Johnson, Joyce Sims Smith (Greg), Olandis 'Lan' Sims; his children CaSondra 'CeCe' Sims Clavelle (Lillie Sims), Jeff Mensa, Tamiko Charley and Breshenda Charley McClinton (Bryan); grandchildren Clarice Clavelle, Kristin Clavelle, Jasmin Reid, Kristian Hamilton (Rachel), DiAngelo McClinton, Skyeler Henderson, Justyn McClinton, Sherrod Henderson, Breyanna McClinton; 11 great grandchildren including Katelynn Thomas and Makayla Thomas; his namesake John Henry 'Uncle Hobo' Riley and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

~ Celebrating the Life of Sylvia V. Sims ~

Sylvia V. Sims, better known as 'Vickie' was born on January 12, 1954 to the late Willie A. Charley and Ella L. Nettles in Greensboro, Alabama. She was born again in Christ at the age of 38 and attended Triumph Everlasting Church under Pastor Pauline Hampton whom preceded her in death. She was joined in holy matrimony with John Sims on February 18, 1995. Vickie was a no nonsense retired nurse aide who deeply loved the Lord and her family especially her grands and great grands.

Vickie happily made her transition from this life on July 19, 2020. Her siblings preceding her are: James 'Butch' Horn and Rufus Fair. Continuing in her memory are: her siblings Samuel Fair (Charmaine) and Gezelle Moore Stapleton (Walter); her daughters Tamiko Charley and Breshenda Charley McClinton (Bryan); grandchildren Jasmin Reid, Kristian Hamilton (Rachel), DiAngelo McClinton, Justyn McClinton, Breyanna McClinton; great grandchildren Katelynn Thomas and Makayla Thomas; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.
