Life REFLECTION

Mr. Paul Nesbitt, a son of the late Melvin Nesbitt, Sr. and Mattie Mathis Nesbitt, was born on December 2, 1946, in Charleston, South Carolina. He entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, June 2, 2026, at his residence in Huger, South Carolina.

Paul received his education at Brickyard School in Huger, South Carolina. As a young man, he ventured to New York City, where he lived for several years before returning home to Huger in 2001.

Paul was employed with O. L. Thompson Construction Company, from which he retired after many years of dedicated service. Following retirement, he returned to the workforce and found great joy working as a Maintenance Technician at Laurel Hill Primary School in Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina, where he faithfully served for more than ten years. Known for his quiet demeanor and gentle spirit, Paul was especially loved by the children. One little girl affectionately called him “Grand Daddy,” a name that brought him great joy.

On February 14, 2002, Paul was united in Holy Matrimony to Albertha Gant. Together they shared a loving marriage and built a life centered on faith, family, and devotion. Paul was blessed with four children. Two sons, Paul Nesbitt, Jr. and Calvin McFadden, preceded him in death. He was also a caring influence in the lives of several nieces and nephews whom he helped nurture throughout the years.

Paul joined New Hope United Methodist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Marvin Taylor, Sr. He faithfully served under the spiritual guidance of Mother Mary Cromedy until her passing. At the time of his transition, he remained under the care of Brother Leroy Cromedy, Leader, and Brother Reginald Clark, Assistant Leader.

In his leisure time, Paul enjoyed fishing and watching television, especially Westerns. He had a unique ability to enjoy life’s simple pleasures and was content in his own company. Kind, humble, and gentle, Paul touched many lives through his quiet strength and warm presence. He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

In addition to his parents and two sons, Paul was preceded in death by his brother, Melvin Nesbitt, Jr.

Cherishing his precious memories are his devoted wife, Albertha Nesbitt; daughters, Pearl (Euclid A.) Smith and Minister Ebony Nesbitt; sister, Pearl Nesbitt; grandchildren, Demetria-Mone D. Smith, Avant Hardaway, Vindya Hardaway, and Kristopher Alexander; bonus sister, Mildred (Isaac) Wright; godson, Travis Nesbitt; sisters-in-law, Mother Jessie M. Lundy and Blondell (Charles) Bennett; brothers-in-law, Pastor Marion (Letha) Gant and Reverend Joseph Smalls; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends who will forever cherish his memory.

MISS Me, BUT LET Me GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, But Let me Go!
