

I'm Just Me

I'm not perfect, I'm me.

I've made bad decisions and wrong choices, but I'm me. I've said the wrong things; I've said the right things, because I'm me.

I don't like everything I've done, but I did it because I'm me. I've loved the wrong people and trusted the wrong people and I'm still me. If I had a chance to start again, I wouldn't change a thing.

Why? Because I'm me.

There are a lot of good things about me; you just need to look past the imperfections to see what's right. If you can't do that then it's your loss.

I'm the best I can be. I am ME

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Helen Myrick, age 85, of Cincinnati, Ohio, transitioned peacefully on Friday, November 22, 2024, at 4:45 a.m. Helen dedicated 37½ years of service to Tri-Health Good Samaritan Hospital, retiring in 1989. A woman of many talents, she loved sewing, adorning her home with flowers, and working tirelessly in her yard to bring beauty to her surroundings. Her true passion, however, was cooking; she prepared everything from scratch, pouring love into every meal.

Helen cherished her role as the matriarch of her family. She held deep love for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, often expressing her care in her firm yet nurturing way. Her stern voice and signature look could command respect, but her unwavering devotion to her family always shone through. She was known for her selflessness, often sacrificing her rest and comfort to provide for her loved ones.

Helen was a beacon of support, bringing her siblings to Cincinnati after the passing of her mother. She frequently traveled along I-75 to Georgia, keeping her family connections strong. Despite life's challenges, Helen's heart overflowed with love, her sacrifices serving as a testament to her dedication and strength.

She is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Ernest Myrick, and her parents, Clinton Evans Sr. and Juanita Mainer Evans Kelly.

Helen's legacy continues through her great-grandchildren: Ka'don Chambers, Gabriel Myrick, Prince Brandon Myrick, Giovanni Myrick, Braylen Myrick, Gavynn Hudson, Josiah Obermuller, Jeremiah Obermuller, Michael Henderson Jr., and Michaela Henderson. She also leaves behind a host of cousins, great-aunts, great-nephews, nieces, nephews, friends, and dedicated healthcare workers who were touched by her kindness and strength.

Helen will forever be remembered for her loving heart, enduring sacrifices, and the deep bonds she nurtured within her family and community. She was a guiding light and a source of inspiration to all who knew her.
