Remembering

Chase Montreal Freeman was born on July 6, 2005, in Wichita, Kansas, to Corey Freeman Sr. and Dinetta Loggins. Chase had a way of lighting up every room he entered and was truly the life of every gathering. His energy, smile, and presence brought joy to those around him, and he was deeply loved and cherished by everyone who knew him.

Though sometimes misunderstood, anyone who truly knew Chase would tell you he had a beautiful soul. He loved meaningful conversations and could spend hours talking about life, ideas, and conspiracy theories. Chase had a unique mind and a special way of connecting with people that left a lasting impression on everyone he encountered.

Chase enjoyed playing football and basketball and dreamed of one day starting his own YouTube channel. He will always be remembered for his loving heart, thoughtful spirit, and the laughter and happiness he brought to his family and friends.

Most importantly, Chase loved the Lord and dedicated his life to his faith. He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age at St. Mark Methodist Church in Wichita, Kansas. Later in life, he chose to be baptized again at Inspire Church in Houston, Texas, alongside his sister, as a reflection of his continued walk with God.

Chase leaves behind a legacy of love, resilience, inspiration, and unforgettable memories. His spirit will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him, guiding and inspiring them for years to come.

Chase was preceded in death by his grandmothers, Carolyn Loggins and Inez Freeman, and his brother, Kash Moore.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving mother, Dinetta Loggins; his father, Corey Freeman Sr.; his grandfather, Donald Loggins Sr.; and his great-grandmother, Dinetta Bell. He also leaves behind his brothers, Corey Freeman Jr. and Montez Miller; his sisters, Mia Moore, Chanel Freeman, and Isis Freeman; and his beloved nieces and nephews, Kash, King, Daiyah, Viviana, and Zevach.

Chase also leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family, and dear friends who will forever hold his memory close to their hearts.
