OBITUARY

Jacqueline Ann Graham ("Sweetie") was born on December 31, 1959, in Newark, New Jersey. She attended school in the Millburn Township school system from kindergarten through high school. After moving to Irvington, New Jersey, she graduated from high school in 1978 and went on to study at Morris County College in Randolph, New Jersey.

After college, Jacqueline enlisted in the United States Air Force, where she proudly served for four years. She later worked at Walmart in Clayton, North Carolina, and spent 17 years as a medical analyst with Jacobson. She also worked as a supervisor at Amazon for three years.

Jacqueline loved to cook, cherished her Facebook family, and deeply loved her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, Randolph George Graham of East Orange, New Jersey.

She is survived by her mother, Miss Electric Mae Graham of Clayton, North Carolina; her sister, Lisa Nicole Graham of Clayton, North Carolina; her brothers, Michael Graham of Clayton, North Carolina, Randolph Graham of Denver, Colorado, and Kevin Green of South Orange, New Jersey. She also leaves behind seven aunts and a host of cousins and friends.
