

"Homecoming"

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears,
be thankful for our beautiful years.
I gave you my love. You can only guess how much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now I guess it is time, I travel alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a time that we must part so bless the memories within your heart.
I will not be far away, for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you cannot see me or touch me,
I will be near.
If you listen with your heart, you will hear all my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way
alone,
I will greet you, with a smile, and say --
"Welcome Home"*

Acknowledgement

Words of thanks seem so inadequate for all of the kindness that has been bestowed upon our family. We thank you for the encouraging visits, the comforting calls, the lovely cards, the beautiful floral arrangements, and the sincere words of solace. We are finding strength in knowing earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

May God bless you richly for blessing us.
