

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Alonzo L. West was born February 14, 1963, in Hamilton, Ohio, to the late Harvey West Sr. and Murnell W. Harrison at Mercy Hospital. He gently closed the final chapter of his life on June 25, 2026, to be with his creator.

“Fatty”, as affectionally called by his family and friends, also had several catchy names like Zo Zilla Zoe, Uncle Slo, and kid’s favorite, Uncle Ruckos. Some of us referred to him as Chef Boyardee because that boy could make those pots and pans rattle and occasionally sing.

Alonzo was a faithful and active member of Isreal Baptist Church. He had the willingness to seek God. He praised God in all he did alongside his family. Alonzo was a sleek and sophisticated dresser who knew how to throw anything on and represent himself and his family in the highest honor.

Alonzo attended Garfield High School and furthered his education at UNLV, Dayton, Ohio where he graduated with a degree in Culinary Arts. He practiced his skills at Applebee’s and French Toast Heaven and ended his career at Tanos. He also did various jobs for Ron Hall’s Famous Detailing.

Alonzo was preceded by his father, daughter, brother, uncle, grandmother and cousin Mary Flowers.

Alonzo leaves to cherish his memory of his mother Murnell W. Harrison; his wife Lavada West; his brothers Harvey West Jr., Robert West, and Martin West; his aunt Verelene Summerour; Gregory Summerour; cousin and best friend Mario Summerour; and a special friend Micheal Davenport, Delvon Davis, Gregory Kennedy, Ron and Ray Hall, Dreamsicle and Bar Bar, a host of nieces and nephews, and many other friends.

Revelation 14:14

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they must rest from their labor, and their works do follow them”
