

This Is Not Goodbye

I did not want to leave you
It was just my time to go
I know your heart is breaking
So, I need to let you know
That although you can no longer see me
I'll be forever by your side
I promise time will numb the pain
And help dry the tears you've cried
You can reach for me in your memories
Just think of me, I will be there
In your dreams, we can visit yesteryear
Where we didn't have a care
Please carry on and live your life
I beg of you to try
Just know we'll meet again one day
As this is not goodbye

*Day is done, gone the sun from the lakes, from the hills, from the sky.
All is well, safely rest. God is near.*

In Loving Memory
Dan Robert Brumley

July 22, 1950 – October 21, 2025

Dan Robert Brumley, the son of Clint and Gladys Brumley, Dan Robert Brumley was born on July 22, 1950, in Spirit Lake, Iowa. He passed away on October 21, 2025.

Dan was united in marriage to Diane (Maranell) Brumley on June 25, 1994, in Lake Park, Iowa. During his life, he worked as a truck driver and proudly served his country in the United States Marine Corps from March 1969 until March 1972, earning the rank of Private First Class. He was a member of the Round Lake VFW.

Over the years, Dan lived in Jacksonville, Florida, Lake Park, Iowa, and, since 2012, made his home in Harris. He enjoyed fishing, camping, hunting, riding his Harley, and relaxing with a beer or whiskey while watching Gunsmoke. One of his favorite pastimes was giving golf cart rides to his dog, Harley. Above all, Dan cherished time spent with his family and friends.

A Hero's Welcome

Time to come home dear brother
Your tour of duty through
You've given as much as anyone
Could be expected to do

Just a few steps further
The smoke will start to clear
Others here will guide you
You have no need of fear

You have not failed your brothers
You clearly gave it all
And through your selfless actions
Others will hear the call

So take your place of honor
Among those who have gone before
And know you will be remembered
For now and evermore
