

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Louvenia M. Ringwood was born on March 18, 1946. She met her loving husband, Jimmie Ringwood, at an early age and they married on June 4, 1983. They were by each other's side throughout their 41 years of marriage. Jimmie never left her during those 41 years. They truly valued the meaning of love. Together, they raised their son, Floyd Robinson, for many years in Madisonville.

Louvenia embodied the true meaning of family time and fun. She loved playing spades, listening to music, watching movies, being creative with her family, and teaching young ladies how to cook and improve their sewing skills. She also enjoyed getting her nails and hair done.

She is survived by her husband, Jimmie Ringwood; her siblings, Arbbie Hodge and Herman Wells Jr.; her son, Floyd Robinson; and three grandchildren: Carnensha Johnson, Floyd Robinson Jr., and Elijah Robinson. She also leaves behind two great-grandchildren, Jaymir and Zaira, as well as several nephews and nieces: Nontay Ship, Antonio Hodge, Jamie Johnson, Brandon Cutright, Talmach Wells, Marvin Thrower, Tania Wells, Michelle Crawford, Flower Hodge, Nicole Davis, Ann Crawford, Bobbi Thrower-Edwards, Jenelle Wells-Simmons, Louvenia Wells, Nina Wells, Olivia Wells-Harlan, and Priscilla Noble. Additionally, she leaves behind a host of great-grandnieces and great-grandnephews.

She spent the most time with her husband Jimmie, known as Big; her son, Floydboy; her niece, Priscilla, and her namesake, Louvenia; as well as her great-nieces, Ciara, Keyara, Aurora, and her great-nephew KJ (Kendall Lockard), who she called JJ. She also loved talking on the phone with Henry and his wife Mattie.

She has now passed on to be with her beloved parents and siblings: her little sister, Mary Wells-Ship (Brown); her little sister, Priscilla Wells-Thrower; her little sister, Ashir Wells-Noble (Hon); her little brother, James Wells; her little brother, Patrick Wells; and her big brother, Henry Johnson.

Special thanks to the whole family and to Walker Funeral Home for all flower arrangements.

When our beloved Venia spent time with us, she wanted us to know that we could have a good time by being ourselves and loving each other.
