

Going Home

When our days on earth have ended,
When the final task is done,
We have fought the final battle
And the victory is won;
We ascend the golden stairway
To our everlasting home,
Where our eyes behold, with rapture,
Jesus sitting on the throne.
All our heartaches are forgotten,
Gone is misery and pain.
In the presence of our Savior
Tears will never fall again.
Oh, the joy to greet our loved ones
Who have parted long ago;
And to live with them in glory,
Where the love lights always glow.

By: Regina Wiencek

Honorary Pallbearers

Mr. Al Scott
Mr. Billy Bradley
Mr. Marion Smith
Mr. Mike Johnson
Mr. Warren Lyndsey

Mr. Jimmy Lee
Mr. Tony Surber
Mr. Cloyd Branch
Mr. John Showalter
Mr. Monroe Preston

Pallbearers

Mr. Marcus Canty
Mr. Issac Coleman
Mr. Kenny Passmore

Mr. Mason Canty
Mr. Edwin Lomans
Mr. Morgan Canty

Flower Bearers

Family & Friends

Acknowledgments

We are overwhelmed by the kindness of our friends and family. Your love, support and prayers have helped to sustain us during the loss of our beloved. We thank GOD for every act of kindness extended to us. May GOD bless you as he has blessed us through you.

R.A. CLARK FUNERAL SERVICE, INC.
"COURTEOUS, EFFICIENT, DIGNIFIED SERVICE"
BRISTOL, TN (423) 764-8584

CELEBRATING LIFE, LOVE, & LEGACY

Mr. Prince Albe COLEMAN

March 2, 1933 - September 6, 2026

A Life Well Lived

Prince A. Coleman, 93, of Glade Springs, Virginia, passed away peacefully on Sunday, September 6, 2026, at The Waters Nursing Home in Blountville, Tennessee.

Prince was born in Meadowview, Virginia, on March 2, 1933. He attended Douglass High School, where he excelled as a student-athlete. He played football and basketball, served on student council, and received four college offers before he ultimately decided to attend Morristown College. He then proudly served his country in the United States Navy. Prince played basketball for the Navy and won the championship game in the summer of 1954. His service took him around the world, allowing him to visit many places, and he remained a proud Navy veteran throughout his life.

Prince married Marjorie Ann McNichols and eventually settled in Glade Springs, Virginia. He worked for Appalachian Power Company until retirement. He was an avid Virginia Tech fan; Prince also gave his time to coaching and organizing Little League Baseball and enjoyed traveling with his close friend, Charlie Byrd.

Throughout his life, Prince wore many hats and served in many capacities. He was known in the area for helping repair many a home and for sharing his wood carpentry skills with friends and family. After retirement, he dedicated himself to the community, serving on the Washington County Board of Supervisors, Washington County Service Authority, and two terms as the Vice Mayor on the Glade Springs Town Council. He was also widely known for his work with Habitat for Humanity. Prince's service to others earned him the Hope Award from Emory and Henry College, along with numerous lifetime achievements illuminating his acts of service and knowledge.

By the end of Prince's life, countless people knew his name as one that stood for a good man, a life well lived, and a hand they were proud to have shaken.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Issac & Roxanne Milliner Coleman; his wife, Marjorie Ann Coleman; grandson, Gary Wayne Coleman Jr.; siblings, Mary (Hugh) Carter, Irene Wells, Evelyn Campbell, Sarah Gammon, Marvin Coleman, Willie Mack Coleman, Jim Coleman, Bill Coleman, and Dave Coleman; daughter-in-law, Gloria Coleman; and lifelong best friend, Charles Byrd.

He is survived by his children, Daryl Coleman, Gary Coleman, Cheryl Coleman, and Lisa Coleman; brothers, Charles Coleman and Tony Coleman; grandchildren, Tameka Coleman, Shabazz Coleman, Tierra Coleman, Major Canty, Marcus Canty, Mason (Laurel) Canty, and Morgan Canty; great-grandchildren, Ohana Coleman, Mila Canty, and Luca Canty; brother-in-law, Billy Wells; and several nieces and nephews.

The family would like to send tremendous thanks to the nursing staff at The Waters Nursing Home for their years of love and devotion to the care of Prince.

The family requests that those wishing to honor Prince Coleman and his legacy make a donation to Fairview Baptist Church in Glade Spring, Virginia, or Habitat For Humanity.

Saturday, September 12, 2026
1:00 pm
Fairview Baptist Church
Rev. Danny Belcher, Sr., Officiating

The Gathering

Musical Prelude

Soft Music

Order of Service

Processional

Ministers

Selection

Ms. Cassandra Johnson

Old Testament Reading

Pastor Hattie Harris

New Testament Reading

Min. Kent Booker

Prayer & Words of Comfort

Rev. Dr. William Reid

Selection

Ms. Deborah Montgomery

Eulogy

Rev. Danny Belcher, Sr.

Presentation of Plaque

Funeral Director

Recessional

Cortege

Final Resting Place

Interment

Mt. Rose Cemetery
Glade Spring, Virginia

