

★ Bricks U Rackathon ★

★ Bricks U Rackathon ★

In Loving Memory

In this quiet hour, we speak Vincent's name like a soft breeze carried on the air—
 brief, beautiful, and never forgotten.
 He rests now in Jehovah's keeping,
 held in a memory that does not fade with time
 or fade with sorrow.

the voice of Christ will call, and Vincent will rise—
 like down lifting over still waters,
 like a long-awaited breath returning to the world.
 Until that promised morning, we hold to hope—
 a hope that smokes trembling beams
 a hope that assures us
 that love endures beyond the veil of sleep.

Vincent's story is not finished.
 It waits in the quiet hands of Jehovah
 who will return him to us
 in perfect peace.

U

★ Bricks U Rackathon ★

Acknowledgment

The family of Vincent Gates would like to express their sincere gratitude for all acts of kindness, love, prayers, and support shown during this difficult time. Your presence and comfort are deeply appreciated and will always be remembered.

Repast

Sentinel Police Association
 1889 Central Park Way
 Cincinnati, Ohio 45214

VINCENT GATES

Known To Many As
 "Bricks Rackathon"

Forever True.
 Forever Remembered.

SUNRISE - SUNSET
 April 20, 1993 - January 4, 2026

★ Bricks  Rackathon ★

Vincent Gates Jr.

Born in Cincinnati, Vincent Gates Jr, age 32, transitioned on January 4, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of love, ambition, and unforgettable memories. Vincent lived life boldly and joyfully and was truly the life of the party, bringing energy, warmth, and laughter wherever he went.

Above all, Vincent was a devoted family man. He loved his children deeply, and took great pride in being present, protective, and committed to their future. Everything he did was rooted in his desire to provide, to lead by example, and to build a strong foundation for his family.

A man of many talents, Vincent loved being in the kitchen, where he was known for cooking big, elegant meals with care and creativity. He was a true car enthusiast with a deep appreciation for foreign cars, style, and craftsmanship. His refined taste extended into music as well, he loved great music, and even created some of his own.

One of Vincent's greatest dreams was to travel the world. He was especially excited about getting his passport, eager to experience life beyond borders, and explore new cultures. His favorite clothing brand, True Religion, reflected his bold style, confidence, and individuality. Vincent Gates Jr. lived with purpose. He worked hard, loved harder, and remained focused on what mattered most—his children, his family, and the legacy he was building.

Vincent is lovingly remembered by his mother, Chandra Murrell, whose love, guidance, and strength shaped the man he became. He is also survived by his father, Vincent Gates, and his stepfather, Neil Murrell, who raised him.

He leaves behind his beloved brother, Cortez Nelson, with whom he shared an unbreakable bond, more than brothers, they were best friends, protectors, and lifelong supporters of one another. Their connection was rooted in loyalty, love, and shared life experiences that will never be forgotten.

Vincent is further survived by his half-siblings, Ashley Taylor, Marcus Young, Jordan Gates, and Malia Gates, along with a host of other half-siblings. He is also cherished by his many aunts, who were like mothers to him, his uncles, and his cousins, who were like sisters and brothers, bound together by love, guidance, and lifelong connection.

Vincent was a devoted and loving father to his children, Te'Vion and Ta'Mya, who were his greatest pride and joy. He is survived by their mother, TaQueisha Evans, who shared in raising and loving them, Vincent shared a deep and meaningful bond with his significant other, Laquita Watkins, who stood by him with love, loyalty, and unwavering support. Together, they embraced her son, Jace Alexander.

★ Bricks  Rackathon ★

Vincent had a magnetic presence, his laughter was contagious, his smile unforgettable, and his energy could turn any gathering into a celebration. He brought people together effortlessly and left lasting impressions everywhere he went.

Though his time on earth was far too short, Vincent Gates Jr., lived fully and loved deeply. His legacy lives on through his children, his family, and the many joyful memories shared in his honor.

