His Legacy

MR. BRUCE TRICE

Bruce Trice, 79, of Shannon, Mississippi, was born on November 20, 1946, to the late Floyd Trice and Odessa McGlown. He was lovingly raised by his stepfather, T.C. McGlown, who played an important role in his life. Bruce departed this earthly life on Monday, April 6, 2026, at Tupelo Nursing and Rehabilitation.

Bruce was a hardworking and dedicated entrepreneur, best known as the owner of Trice Cement Company. Through his work, he built not only a successful business but also lasting relationships with those around him. He was a very social man, and his wide circle of friends reflected connection he brought into the world. Additionally, Bruce honorably served in the United States Army and was a proud Vietnam Veteran.

Bruce enjoyed watching western movies and sports and found joy in life's simple pleasures. In his younger years, he loved fishing, riding 4-wheelers, and traveling. Above all, Bruce loved his family. He adored his wife, Avery Trice, was proud of his children and grandchildren, and took great pride in the life he built with his loved ones.

Bruce was preceded in death by his wife, Avery Trice, parents, Floyd Trice and Odessa McGlown Trice; his stepfather, T.C. McGlown; and his siblings, Floyd Trice, Sr., Gwyndalen Bell, Joyce Boyd, and Melody Trice.

He leaves to cherish his memory his son, Steven Trice (LaShondha) of Shannon, MS; daughters, Jessica Ray of Shannon, MS, and Savannah Trice of Denver, CO; grandchildren: Asianna Trice of Murfreesboro, TN, Tristian Ray, Christian Ray, and Jalen White of Tupelo, MS; great-grandchildren, Austin Malone, Teagan Trice, and A'Nyla Trice; brother, Roderick Trice; sisters, Janice Trice Ivory and Darlene Chatman; and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives, countless friends, and special friend Linda Hodge.

Bruce will be remembered for his strong work ethic, his warm and outgoing spirit, and the love he gave so freely to his family and friends. His presence will be deeply missed, but his legacy will live on in all who knew and loved him.

Message from Savannah Trice:

I was blessed to share 34 wonderful years with you—my favorite guy in the whole world! Every week we talked, and you reminded me that you loved me, were proud of me, and would always have my back. Even as an adult, I never had to worry about anything because you were always there for me.

You guided me through every step of life—teaching me the value of education at a very young age, supporting me through college, encouraging my career goals, and showing me how to face life's challenges. I am forever grateful to have been raised by you, and I will carry your love, wisdom, and strength in my heart always.

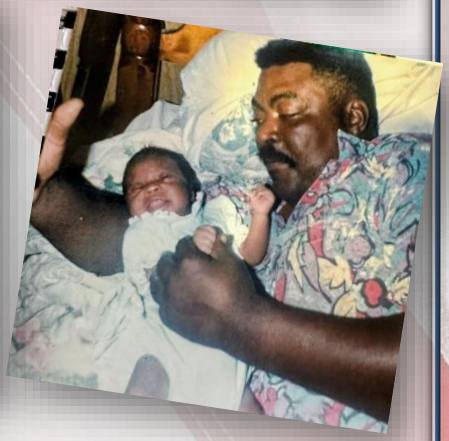

-Savannah Trice

To My Father,

I was blessed to be your only son. You showed me what strength looks like—not just in hard work, but in kindness, patience, and quiet sacrifice. Everything I am carries a piece of you with it.

You taught me how to stand tall, how to keep going when things are hard, and how to love without needing recognition. I will always carry your voice in my heart and your lessons in my life.

Though I will miss you every day, I am grateful beyond words for the time we had. Being your son is the greatest honor of my life.

With love, always.

Steven

Dad,

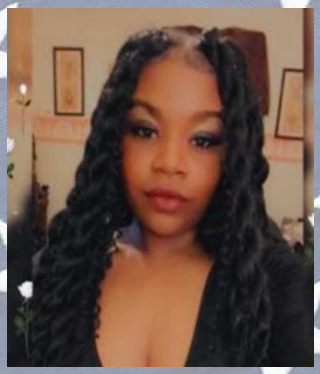

I love you and will miss you.

Love, Jessica

Grandad, you always made us feel special and cared for, anytime we visited. You listened when we talked and made us feel like our thoughts really mattered. Your love, patience, and kindness will always stay in our hearts, and we will never forget how much you meant to us. We know you now watch over and protect us. We love you Grandad!

Love, Tristian and Christian.
