Remembering Big O

OTIS TONEY JR. was born on October 21, 1984 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Deborah Michelle Miller and the late Otis Toney Sr. of Baltimore, Maryland. He was the eldest brother to two sisters. He departed this life suddenly and tragically on May 27, 2023.

Big O, as he was affectionately called by friends and family alike attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Learning the love for basketball at the tender age of three, he went on to join The Amateur Athletic Union Basketball League (AAU Basketball).

Otis held a few jobs with different occupations. It was his latest job in landscape maintenance, after a few years, that gave him the idea to create "Big O's Landscaping & Lawn Care". Big O cut everyone's grass. People who had their own lawn mowers would get Big O to cut their grass. He was just that guy who's company you wanted to be in.

Big O was very much a family man. The highlights of his life were the births and relationships he had with his children Jaleel, Otis III, O'niya, and Tyron. He was very excited when Otis III received a full scholarship to St. Mary's College.

Big O loved and enjoyed playing jokes, throwing water and tricking his family. He was a big fan of a cousins gathering and especially the regular family gatherings. He would be at your family gathering if he had a place in the corner to smoke his hookah.

Before being suddenly and tragically taken away from us, Otis was preceded in death by his mother Deborah Miller, Father Otis Toney, Granddads Thaddus Tucker and June Miller, Aunts Darlene Miller - Bey & Tara Mosley, Uncles Michael & Robert Miller, William Spence Jr., and Reginald Toney.

Big O leaves to cherish such awesome memories of him, three sons Jaleel, Otis III and Tyron. One daughter O'niya. Two sisters Tracey Miller and Michaela Miller. Two grandmothers Hilda Miller and Sammie Lee Toney. A very special aunt Marie Branch-Toney. As well as his aunts Joy Miller, Regina Earley (Keith) and Candy Ward. Uncles Jermaine Miller and Earsey Toney and uncle/godfather Rev. Richard A. Mosley Sr. Bonus Dad Gerald Stokes. Best friends Michael Sean Russell, Aaron Dennis and Quinton Green. A host of cousins and other relatives and friends.

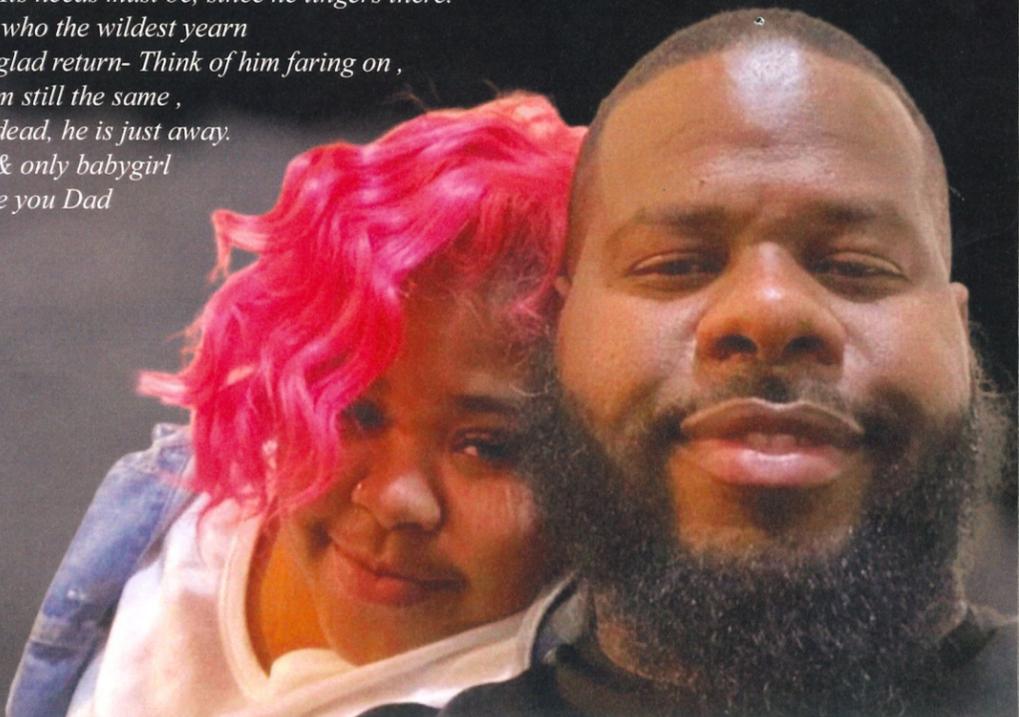

My Brother,

Words can't express my thoughts,
 Letters can't connect the dots
 To express how special you are.
 You, my brother, are a star.
 You are always there for me.
 You are as special as a brother can be
 We have our share of disagreements.
 But also we have had many achievements.
 You are like a best friend,
 With you, I don't pretend.
 About anything, I can talk with you
 And you also give good advice that's true.
 When I'm feeling down,
 You act like such a clown
 You always could make me smile,
 Even when we were juveniles.
 Forever & Always
 Big/Little Sister

A loving Father,

tender and kind, what a beautiful memory you left behind.
 Surrounded by family, I still feel alone. My heart is so empty this pain I must own.
 I'm so thankful for all the memories we shared, I only wish you were here to make more.
 Not long enough to laugh with you after every bad joke, after every tough hill not long enough to walk with this man. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you.
 You may not be with me any more, but my love for you will never die. I miss you Dad,
 I cannot say and I will not say that he is dead, he is just away.
 I keep thinking about you, even though it hurts.
 With a cheery smile and a wave of hand He has wandered into an unknown land
 And left us dreaming how very fair Its needs must be, since he lingers there.
 And you-oh you, who the wildest yearn from the old-time step and the glad return- Think of him faring on ,
 Think of him still the same ,
 I say He is not dead, he is just away.
 Your one & only babygirl
 I love you Dad

To my Nephew,

You were like my son, when I lost you, I lost a piece of me.
 I know you will be with me forever!
 Until we meet again and cut up,
 I will forever miss you and that smile that got me everytime.

I LOVE YOU
 AUNT MARIE

Gentle Giant

Mild, Kind, & Tender. SuperHuman. Lil O.
 You lived and you lived well.
 You were very useful, honorable, & compassionate.
 You made a difference in a lot of our lives.
 Whether it was your mild smile, your kind heart, or your generous giving.
 You didn't look for anything in return but love.
 You're gone away into a silent land, where I can no longer hold your hand.
 But I'm happy I'm left with memories, because old things are more beautiful than many things brand new.
 They bring fond memories of things we use to do!
 While some memories brings smiles of happiness, and some tears to the eye, they all are precious.
 I'm trying to make everything Rhyme, but I'm not really good at it (Lol) But watch how I do this next line.
 Lightening the Grill will never be the same, cause it was you that held that flame.
 The flame to light your hookah and the same flame that gave all of us a good burger!
 You did it with a kind heart and you always knew how to play your part!
 Lil O (Big O),
 Love Coco

YOU STAYED THE COURSE,
 NOW IT'S TIME TO CATCH YOUR FLIGHT
 TO THE AIR FORCE
