The Obituary

Iona McGibboney Twyman, 93, of Coatesville, PA, passed away on Friday, January 21, 2022, at her residence.

A lifelong resident of Coatesville, Iona was the daughter of the late Ruffing and Blanche McGibboney. She was the wife of the late Ernest Twyman.

Iona was employed as a nurse's aide at the Coatesville VA Hospital for 15 years.

Iona loved reading, sewing, and cooking. She read all types of novels. The family loved everything she cooked. She also loved to travel. Most of all, she loved raising children. She was known for taking care of children who lived on Coates Street for many years.

That expressed great joy...

Of passion for living...

She was also a member of Eureka Chapter #12 Order of Eastern Star Inc. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Iona is survived by daughters, Suzette Twyman, Freddia "Lady Bug" Twyman, Bertha Hardy Alston all of Coatesville; sister, Joan Henry of Pottstown; several nieces and nephews that she helped raise; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, cousins, as well as a lifelong friend, Barbara Taylor.

In addition to her parents, Iona was preceded in death by her children: Dorothy Twyman, Irene Twyman Peoples, Larry McGibboney (husband of Egeria McGibboney), Tillman Twyman, and many siblings.

Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family
