

*"For this is how God loved the world. He gave his one and only son so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life."
-John 3:16*

Crossing Over

Oh, please don't feel guilty
It was just my time to go.
I see you are still feeling sad,
And the tears just seem to flow.
We all come to earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not many years
I don't want you to keep crying
You are shedding so many tears.
I haven't really left you
Even though it may seem so.
I have just gone to my heavenly home,
And I'm closer to you than you know.
Just believe that when you say
my name, I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me,
But there's nothing I can do.
But I'll still send you messages
And hope you understand,
That when your time comes to
"cross over," I'll be there to take your hand.

In Loving Memory of

Diahann Theresa Faye Dumas

October 31, 1996—December 23, 2020

"No one else will ever know the strength of my love for you, after all you're the only one who knows what my heart sounds like from the inside."

Her Hope:

"I hope he can love me, heal me from this sickness I have."

"Jesus, I give you the first affection of my heart."

My beloved girl has gone home. She was a fighter through out the years. No more suffering and no more pain. Yes, the tears and grief will be hard to bare. I'm forever grateful to be blessed with the many years. She was loan to us and will be forever in our Father's care. Gone to be with our loved ones. Love you my girl. You will be surely missed and will remain in our hearts.

Surrounded by her family through facetime, Diahann Theresa Faye Dumas, passed away peacefully, Wednesday, December 23, 2020, at the Thompson General Hospital, Thompson Manitoba, at the age of 24 years.

Diahann enjoyed beading, singing, gatherings, Pow Wows, travelling, picking berries, trips to Halfway, camping, journal writing, dancing, talking and spending time with family and friends. She loved her family and friends and especially her son Jorge.

Diahann battled with lupus since the age of 18. Her mother and siblings were always by her side throughout the years. Not once complaining or angry about lupus. She was a fighter, battling her sickness and disability.

She was a strong believer in her Catholic faith and always shared versus with others on facebook.

Diahann was smart, beautiful, caring, loving daughter, sister, friend, surrounding herself with love, positivity, full of life and giving her attention to what she could do. She was amazing!

Diahann is survived by her son Jorge Colomb and common-law Bradley Colomb; siblings Marie Linklater (Travis), Daniel Dumas, Haley Dumas (Clint), Norma Dumas (Darren), Dhajia Dumas (Tanner), Nanson Dumas, Reyse Dumas, Tyler Linklater, Jenny Linklater; mother Nancy Dumas; father Norman Dumas; nieces and nephews Travis Dick, Hannah Dick, Valoyde Linklater, Nanxie Linklater, Johzee Dick, Aubrey Dumas, John dumas, William Dumas, Maizi Snowbird; and many relative and friends too numerous to mention.

Diahann was predeceased by grandparents Alex and Marie Linklater, Armand and Theresa Dumas; and many relatives and friends too numerous to mention.

I would like to acknowledge and thank everyone who supported, helped, guided and loved her through
