LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Vernada Crowder

Vernada Crowder, a woman of faith, grace, and enduring love, was born on May 22, 1931, in Yazoo City, Mississippi, to Walter and Corrine Scott. The fourth of their children, she lived a life marked by devotion to family, service to others, and a steadfast belief in God. On December 12, 2025, Vernada entered eternal rest.

A faithful member of Old King Solomon Church in Yazoo City, Vernada's spiritual walk reflected her deep devotion to God. She dedicated her life to prayer, service, and encouraging those around her. Her gentle heart, guiding wisdom, and abiding faith inspired all who knew her, especially her family and church community.

Vernada was united in holy matrimony to the late Willie James "Sonny" Crowder, and together they shared sixty-three years of marriage rooted in faith and love. Theirs was a rare and enduring union – a partnership marked by quiet strength, unwavering devotion, and a deep commitment to family. They supported one another through every season of life, building a home filled with warmth, prayer, and a love that stood the test of time. From this union, six children were born.

Vernada was preceded in death by her parents; her siblings Aziree Scott, Willie Allen Scott, Roosevelt Scott Sr., Walter Scott Sr., Eugene Scott, and Charles Scott; and two beloved daughters, Bridgette Crowder-Latiker and LaVern Crowder-Jones.

Vernada leaves to cherish her memory her loving children: Carolyn Crowder of Buford (GA); Sharon Crowder of Houston (TX); Ricky Crowder, with his wife Angela, of Lawrenceville (GA); Stanley Crowder, with his wife Jacquetta, of Grayson (GA); along with 12 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren, each of whom carries a part of her spirit forward.

Vernada is also survived by her sisters, Hazel Allen and Bobbie Scott of Stockton (CA), along with a loving circle of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and cherished friends who will forever remember her kindness, generosity, and strength.

Vernada's legacy of faith and love will continue to live on through the many lives she touched and the values she instilled.

*"When someone you love
becomes a memory,
the memory becomes a treasure."*

TRIBUTE

A Mother's Touch Remains

*You gave us strength before we knew we needed it,
and love that time can never take away.
Your voice still guides us in the quiet moments;
your spirit walks with us each day.*

*Though heaven holds you gently now,
your heart remains forever near.
For a mother's love is everlasting –
a light we carry year after year.*

*Love,
Carolyn, Sharon, Ricky, and Stanley*

REVELATION 21:4

*"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying,
neither shall there be any more pain:
for the former things are passed away."*
