DEATH IS NOTHING AT ALL.
I HAVE ONLY SLIPPED AWAY TO THE NEXT ROOM.
I AM [ME] AND YOU ARE YOU.
WHATEVER WE WERE TO EACH OTHER,
THAT, WE STILL ARE.

CALL ME BY MY OLD FAMILIAR NAME.
SPEAK TO ME IN THE EASY WAY
WHICH YOU ALWAYS USED.
PUT NO DIFFERENCE INTO YOUR TONE.
WEAR NO FORCED AIR OF SOLEMNITY OR SORROW.

LAUGH AS WE ALWAYS LAUGHED
AT THE LITTLE JOKES WE ENJOYED TOGETHER.
PLAY, SMILE, THINK OF ME. PRAY FOR ME.
LET MY NAME BE EVER THE HOUSEHOLD WORD
THAT IT ALWAYS WAS.
LET IT BE SPOKEN WITHOUT EFFECT.
WITHOUT THE TRACE OF A SHADOW ON IT.

LIFE MEANS ALL THAT IT EVER MEANT.
IT IS THE SAME THAT IT EVER WAS.
THERE IS ABSOLUTE UNBROKEN CONTINUITY.
WHY SHOULD I BE OUT OF MIND
BECAUSE I AM OUT OF SIGHT?

I AM BUT WAITING FOR YOU.
FOR AN INTERVAL.
SOMEWHERE. VERY NEAR.
JUST AROUND THE CORNER.

ALL IS WELL.

Reflection Of Her Life

JEAN M. MILLER

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful."
2 Timothy 4:7

Jean (Sarah) Meria Miller, affectionately known as "Sarah," peacefully transitioned to her heavenly home on Friday, September 19, 2025. Born on March 8, 1965, in Washington, D.C., she was one of six beloved children born to Annie Jane Miller Robinson and the late Thomas Miller, Sr. From an early age, she was rooted in the church, attending Zion Pilgrim Baptist Church, where her spiritual foundation began. Sarah's life was a beautiful reflection of strength, love, care, service and faith leaving behind a legacy that will continue to inspire all who knew her. She received her education in the public schools of Richland County and went on to devote much of her career to serving others through her work at various health care facilities to include Vistelan Healthcare in Summerville, SC. Caring for the needs of others was not just her profession—it was her calling. Sarah's presence was one that made people feel welcomed and cherished. She had a gift for creating lasting memories, whether through birthdays, holidays, or simple gatherings that she turned into something special. When Sarah cooked, every meal was more than food—it was an expression of love. Her entrepreneurial spirit led her to share her talents as both a caterer and a restaurant owner, leaving behind a legacy of flavor, warmth, and fellowship.

Beyond her work and her table, Sarah found joy in traveling and embracing new experiences. She poured herself into her community, lending a helping hand wherever she could, always with strength, determination, and faith. One of the greatest joys of Sarah's life was being a mother and grandmother. She loved her grandchildren as if they were her own children. She poured her heart into every moment with them, creating bonds filled with laughter, care, and unforgettable memories. With Nora, she delighted in picking her up from school and treating her to special outings that became cherished adventures; With Jaylan, she shared a language of laughter, trading jokes that only the two of them truly understood; and with Malik, she found joy in their heartfelt conversations and moments that revealed the deep love and wisdom she carried.

In addition to her father Thomas Miller, Sr., Sarah was preceded in death by her son Herman Logan, Jr. and brother Andy Lee Miller.

Sarah leaves to cherish her precious memories, her three daughters: Niteki S. Williams of Summerville, SC; Major Felicia L. Logan of Alexandria, VA; and Charlissa Roberson of Hopkins, SC; three grandchildren: Malik M. Logan of Seattle, WA, Jaylan M. Williams and Nora S. Williams of Summerville, SC; mother Annie Jane Miller Robinson of Sumter, SC; one brother Thomas (Alice) Miller, Jr. of Sumter, SC; three sisters: Mary (Gregg) Miller of Columbia, SC; Jacqueline (Vince) Murden of Elgin, SC; and Thomasina (Clarence) Hood of Taylorsville, NC; a host of loving nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.
