Reflections of Her Life

Laila Robin Ortiz was born on July 14, 2017, to Ms. Leandra Seymour and Mr. Wilson. Ortiz Jr., She was known to all her family, friends, and teachers as an outgoing, bubbly, and kind girl. Laila was a bright, joyful unicorn and rainbow-loving individual. creative spirit who touched the hearts of everyone she met. She had a deep love for singing and dancing, often filling rooms with music from her iPad, TV, or good-ol'acapella. Tied with her love for music was her love for creating; from drawing and painting to story-writing and making crafts from scraps. She found happiness in using her imagination to create wonderful, silly worlds of her own. More than anything else, she loved to laugh and make others laugh, too.

Laila's smile and beautiful eyes could light up any space, and her kind, loving heart made everyone feel special. She was a highly curious girl who loved to read and learn, and could converse with anyone. She had a gentle spirit, a playful personality, and a way of bringing joy to even the simplest moments. Whether she was performing a song, telling a story or joke, or showing off her latest creation, Laila brought warmth and happiness to those around her.

On April 26, 2026, after a year-long battle with pediatric cancer, Laila passed away peacefully in the arms of her adoring parents. She fought courageously and is a shining example of perseverance. She is lovingly remembered by her parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and so many friends. Though her time here was far too short, Laila's light, creativity, and love will live on forever in the hearts of those who love her. She will be deeply missed forever.
