Obituary

Marva J. Nealy (Watson) was born on February 3, 1939 in Tampa, FL to Wilma J. Graham and Shelly Watson. Marva moved to Philadelphia, PA at the age of 10 years old. Marva was educated in the parochial school system. Marva graduated from John W. Hallahan Catholic High School For Girls in 1958. Marva received her Doctorate of Theology from Jameson School Of Theology in 2015.

Marva worked as a Licensed Practical Nurse for over 30 years in hospitals, mental health agencies, nursing homes, and drug treatment facilities.

After the Lord saved her, she started her christian journey at Peniel Baptist Church under the late Pastor E.A. Walker. During that time she married Charles C. Nealy who also joined Peniel. Later moving their membership to the Church Of Blessed Hope under the late Pastor Dorothy White. Being called into the ministry, Rev. Charles Nealy founded his own ministry. Following his death in 1993, Rev. Marva Nealy and the members of their ministry joined New Southern Tabernacle B.C. where she served until her illness prevented her from doing so.

Marva was preceded in death by Charles C. Nealy (Husband) and Craig T. Jackson Sr. (Grandson).

She leaves to her remembrance mother, Wilma Griffin, daughters, Shannon (Shawn) Drumwright and Sherri (Scott) Weems, seven grandchildren and one special grandchild (Jamillah Drumwright), seven great-grandchildren and one special great-grandchild (Zahraa Jones) and a host of family and friends.
