

A Fallen Limb

Author Unknown

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all daily, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.

Life Reflections

On Monday, May 18, 2026, Dublin Dennis III entered eternal rest at Prisma Health and MUSC.

He was the fifth of six children born to the late Reverend Dublin Dennis Jr and Rosa Stine Wallace Dennis on January 5, 1950 in Borden, South Carolina.

He began to serve God at an early age and was a member of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church in Rembert, South Carolina. He graduated from Ebenezer High School in Dalzell, South Carolina. After high school, he went to work for DuPont in Camden, SC. Some years later, he relocated to Bronx, New York and worked at a messenger service.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one son, Dublin Dennis IV and a sister, Rosa Mae Dennis.

He leaves to cherish his memories, two daughters: LaTronia (Willie) Maroney, Jr. of Chester VA, and Reverend Sidnee M. Dallas of Glen Allen, VA; one granddaughter, Willow Mahorey of Chester, VA; his partner, Bessie M. Burgess of Sumter, SC; three sisters, Helena Dennis-Canty of New York City, Elizabeth Dennis-Spann of Orange, New Jersey and Earnestine Dennis-Hill of Bronx, NY; two brothers: Leo (Frances) Dennis of Rembert, SC and Michael J. (Diane) Dennis of Maryland; sister-in-law, Calpurnia Dennis of Rembert, SC; one aunt; two uncles; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandnephews, cousins, other family members and friends.
