

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Jo Elizabeth Brooks was born on May 22, 1941, and departed this life on January 7, 2026, at Christ Hospital. She was born to the union of James Jackson and Loistein (Oakley) Jackson in Covington, Kentucky. She was a member of St. James AME Church in Covington, Kentucky.

Elizabeth graduated in 1959 from William Grant High School. Following high school, she relocated to Chicago, Illinois, where she was employed by Spiegel's Catalog Company. It was there that she met her husband, James Brooks. The couple later moved to Nebraska and then to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where Elizabeth worked as a beautician.

Elizabeth earned her associate degree and went on to become a prison administrator with the Oklahoma Department of Corrections. She retired from the Department of Corrections in 2003 and returned home to Cincinnati, Ohio. Upon her return, she worked as a legal secretary for attorney Lisa K. Crawford.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her parents and her brothers, James Huddleston and Fred Jackson. She leaves to cherish her memory her siblings: Barbara Phipps (Robert), LaRoma Fowler (Richard), Earlene Stone (George), and Thomas Jackson, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
