Life Reflections

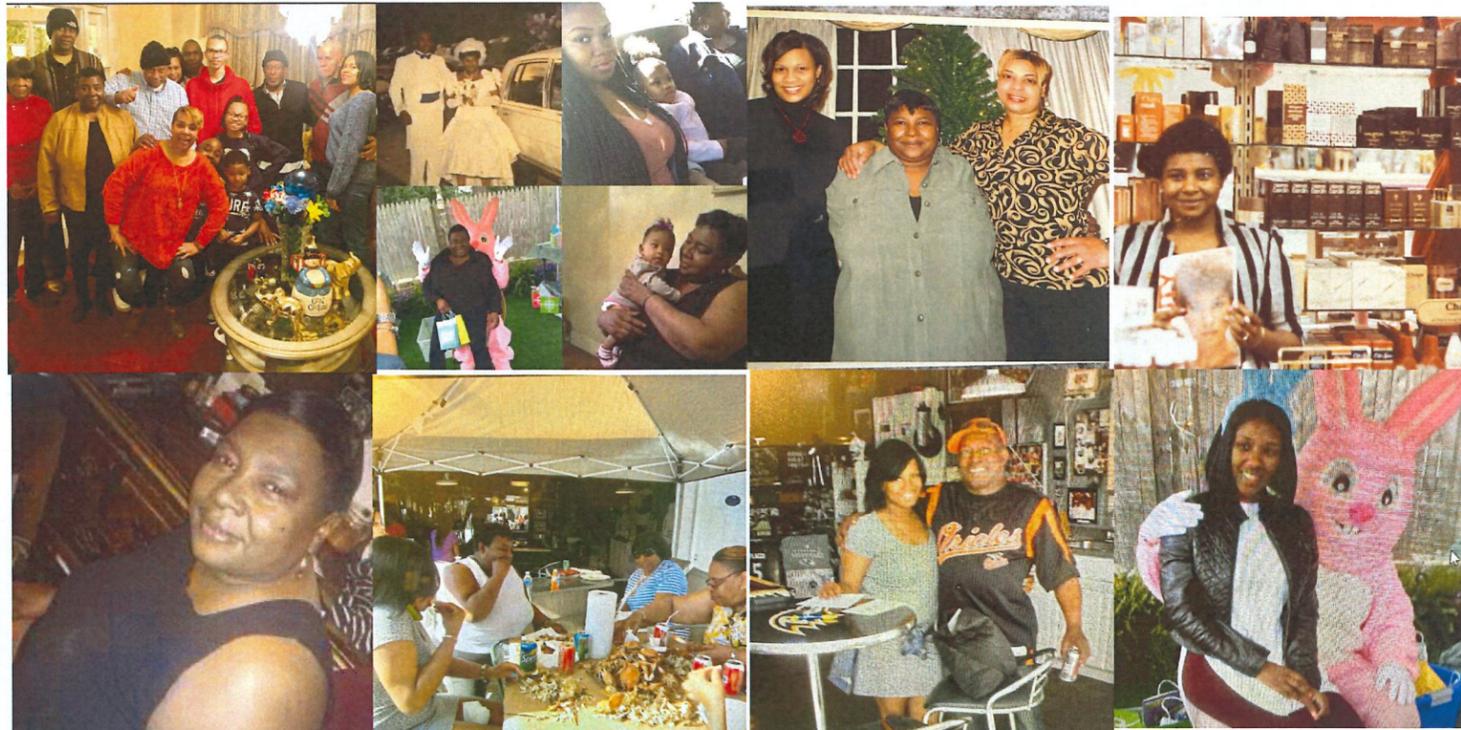

Velma Jean Young Simmons was born on September 30, 1953 in Halifax County, North Carolina to Louis and Queenie Adams. Velma was educated in the Halifax County school system.

In the 1970's Velma migrated to Maryland where she met and married the love of her life for 28 years, Jerome Simmons, who preceded her in death in 2017.

Velma worked for the State of Maryland for over 28 years. She enjoyed getting together with family. Her favorite past times were playing spades, playing the lottery, scratch-offs, jigsaw puzzles, and eating crabs.

Velma loved to prank phone call her bother Mike, she would laugh for days after. Velma has a close relationship with her other brother Herman, who drove her to work every day. Velma loved to go shopping with her mother. Velma was kind and willing to help anyone in need, she was loyal and loved.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory, two children, Mario Young (Tay Little), Brittany Simmons, five grandchildren, Meka, Khylia, Kameron, Kamaya, Shadon, five great-grandchildren, Journey, Rashawn, Nashaya, Kaden, Jayden, mother, Queenie Adams, two sisters, Marlene Brown (Stephen, Sr), Anita Davis (Will), three brothers Herman Adams (Angela), Michael Adams, Kenny Adams, one aunt, Louise Brown, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws, and friends.

has fallen from the family tree
That says
Grieve not for me
Remember the Best times,
The laughter, the song
The good life
I lived while I was strong.*
