Gone Too Soon

We weren't prepared for you to go
You were too full of life to be Taken away from us so soon
It's still hard to believe

How much we'll miss your smile
And your laughter in our ears
Your absence leaves a hole in us
We're filling with our tears

You taught us how to be our best
To in the moment live
To never hold a grudge for long
And loyal friendship give

Your presence was a light and a joy
We never realized would someday end
Just like the brilliant falling star
That curved 'round heaven's bend

And though we cannot understand
The reasons God took you now
We'll do our best to accept this loss
To carry on somehow…

Focusing on you and your joy in heaven
More than mourning in distress
Smiling through our falling tears
Counting our time with you quite blessed

We will remember you forever
For you, our hearts will always have room
We loved you more than you will ever know
You left us far too soon!

Ashley Nicole Tucker

Ashley Nicole Tucker, 33, of Sedalia, Missouri, passed away on October 12, 2026, at her home in Sedalia. She was born on December 12, 1992, in Sedalia, Missouri, the daughter of Daniel Curtis and Kimberly Ann Brown.

On November 5, 2016, in Green Ridge, Missouri, she was united in marriage to Jarrett Lee Tucker, who resides in the home.

Ashley graduated from Smith-Cotton High School in 2011 and continued her education at State Fair Community College. She possessed a deep passion for reading, writing, music, singing, and the arts. Ashley cherished every moment spent with her son, Oliver, attending events together as a proud and devoted mother. She was especially grateful to the Dream Factory for making Oliver's wish trip to Walt Disney World possible, as he bravely faces life with Type 1 Diabetes. Ashley was a fierce advocate for Type 1 Diabetes awareness. Her vibrant spirit shone through as the loudest and most enthusiastic wrestling fan, and she was known for her love of cow print and anything adorned with Highland cows. Generosity defined her, always putting others ahead of herself. Her faith in the Lord guided her throughout her life - she was baptized at Broadway Baptist Church as a child and found joy sharing her singing voice in the church choir and at local nursing homes. Above all, Ashley's world revolved around her son, Oliver; her love for her family and her infectious laughter touched everyone she met.

Besides her parents, Daniel and Kimberly Brown, and husband, Jarrett Tucker, Ashley is survived by her son, Oliver Preston Tucker; sister, Kaela Reeves (Joel); brother, Eric Brown; grandmothers, Betty Brown, and Kathleen White; nephews, Archer Daniel Reeves, Jackson Schmidt, Charles Schmidt, Jed Tucker, Justin Tucker, Jacob Draper, and Seth Draper; nieces, Karly McAllister (Brandon), Randi Draper, Storme' Williams, and Kaylan Schmidt; and many aunts, uncles, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and friends.

Ashley was preceded in death by her grandpas, Chester Brown and Ralph G. White; mother-in-law, Janet Tucker; father-in-law, Robert Tucker; aunt, Linda K. Wolfe; uncle, Larry Ditzfeld; brother-in-law, Rick Schmidt; great-nephew, Jason Tucker; and a cousin, Brittany Nicole Brown.
