I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to Thee
God wanted me now; he set me free.

Psalms 23

A Psalm of David

The LORD is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

"Forever in our hearts, Ella Mae Scott will be remembered for her love, strength, and the light she brought into our lives."

❖ Ella Mae Scott was born on December 9, 1935, in Lott, Texas, to the loving union of Lewis Peoples and Ruthie Paul. She was the second child, joining her older brother, Lewis Peoples Jr., and later welcoming her siblings, Flora Clark and Jimmie Lee Peoples, into the family's harmony. Ella peacefully transitioned from this life on March 21, 2026, in Wichita, Kansas, surrounded by her loved ones. Before she ever became a mother, Ella was already one, selflessly caring for her siblings, guiding them with love, and standing as a source of strength in their lives." A true reflection of the nurturing spirit that defined her life. She found joy in cooking soulful meals that brought her family together, filling her home not only with the aroma of comfort food but with laughter, warmth, and love. She cherished time spent with family and friends, whether gathered around the table playing bingo, cards, or dominoes, moments that created lasting and treasured memories.

❖ Ella's home was always open to anyone in need, a true reflection of her selfless and compassionate heart. Ella was known for her sweet, loving nature and her ability to make everyone feel welcomed, valued, and cared for.
