She was the cherished daughter of the late Levi Tom Westbrook and Frances Charlene McKeever, whose influence shaped her remarkable character and enduring values.

Throughout her life, Janet demonstrated unwavering commitment to her work as a customer service representative for AT&T. She was valued for her professionalism, reliability, and the genuine care she extended to everyone she encountered. Revelation 21: 3-4

With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say:
“Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

Ecclesiastes 7:1-2

A good name is better than good oil, and the day of death is better than the day of birth. 2 Better to go to the house of mourning than to the house of feasting, for that is the end of every man, and the living should take it to heart.
