Obituary

Short Biography of Mr Mulugeta Abdi Weyecha

Mr. Mulugeta Abdi Weyecha was born from his father Mr. Abdi Weyecha and his mother Mrs. Amelewok Gebremariam in Addis Ababa's Afincho Ber (Samuna Fabrica) neighborhood in 1968. When he reached school age he attended wro Kelemework School for his elementary and junior high education. He attended Empress Menen High School graduating in 1987.

To utilize his talent for writing he joined Feleg Publishers where he published entertaining and educating articles that made him popular. To satisfy his love for writing he joined Ministry of Information early in 1988 and serves as Assistant Cameraman,

Youth Program Editor and reporter while studying at and graduating from the Mass Media College run by the Ministry of Information. He then served as Deputy Chief Editor. In May 2000 Mulugeta was granted the Diversity Visa and moved to the United States where he stayed until his passing.

Mulugeta was united in matrimony with Mrs Martha Tafa since 1998, and they are blessed with two sons and a daughter. Mulugeta was a great man who gets along with people, loved by many, and helps people in need. He passed at age 56 on March 8, 2025, while undergoing treatment for his illness at the University of Cincinnati Hospital.

The family would like to thank friends and family who came from far and near, who have been by our side during his sickness, and for being with us when we bid her farewell; may the Lord Jesus Christ bless you all.

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness” 2 Timothy 4:7-8
