If Roses Grow In Heaven

If roses grow in heaven, Lord
Please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my mother's arm
And tell her they're from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her
And when she turns to smile
Place a kiss on her cheeks
And hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there is an ache within my heart
That will never go away.

The day that God called your name
It broke our hearts in two
Oh! Heaven needed an Angel!
And the one he picked was you
I just wish he could have waited
And let you stay with me
But you have left memories in our hearts
And that's where they'll always be
We just wish we could rewind the clock
Or make it turn real slow
We could have hugged you one more time
Before you had to go
No matter how much time will pass
We'll miss you everyday
Keep shining bright in Heaven
So you can light our way.

Her Story

Brenda Kay Turner passed away unexpectedly on February 28, 2025, surrounded by her loved ones. She was born on February 14, 1945, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the late Harold and Jammacy Miller.

After graduating from high school in 1961, Brenda began her career at the Bud Company in Philadelphia, where she worked for several years. In 1986, she transitioned into education, becoming a special education assistant teacher at Archway Schools in Atco, New Jersey.

Brenda met and married the love of her life, Calvin E. Turner, and together they raised three wonderful children: Lorenzo, Tracy, and Eric.

A woman of deep faith, Brenda always sought to live according to God's teachings. She was actively involved in several Bible study groups, finding strength and purpose in her spiritual journey.

Brenda was predeceased by her husband, Calvin E. Turner; her son, Lorenzo; her brothers, George, Robbie Lee, and Harold; and her sisters, Joanna and Shirley.

She leaves to celebrate her life her children, Eric and Tracy; her son-in-law, Charles; and her daughter-in-law, Korey. Brenda was a devoted grandmother to Brandon, Brittany, Taylor, Lorenzo, Einer, Autumn, and Jordan, as well as a proud great-grandmother to eight great-grandchildren. She is also survived by two brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law, her favorite niece, Melinda, and a host of family and friends who will cherish her memory. Brenda's kindness, faith, and dedication to her loved ones will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Lovingly submitted,
