Bernard's OBITUARY

Bernard Green was born in Atlanta, Georgia, on September 7, 1953, to the late Mr. and Mrs. Jessie J. Green (Bervina).

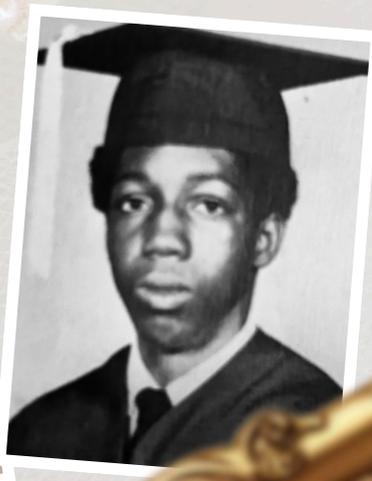

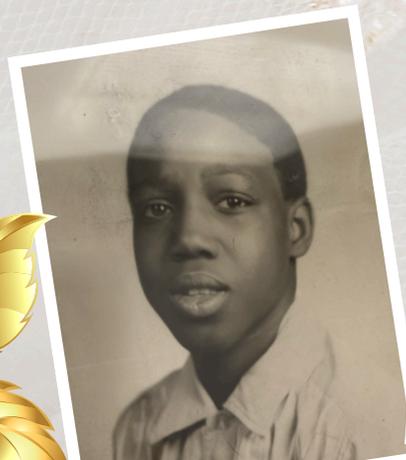

He grew up in Forthward, attended C.W. Hill Elementary School, and later graduated from D.T. Howard High School.

Bernard later married Sherian Hart, and their union was blessed with one child.

He loved working on cars, but more importantly, he loved lending a helping hand to those he cared about. No matter what he had going on, he was always there when you needed him.

He was called home on August 10, 2025. He is survived by three sons: Tremaine Green, Nicholas Green, and Roderick Green; two stepchildren, Boosie and Shawn; nine grandchildren, one of whom preceded him in death, Tremaine Bernard Williams; two great-grandchildren; one sister, Shelia Way; three nephews, Jake Way (Joy), Quinton Way, and Donte Foster; one aunt, Earnie Dawson (Ralph); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends.

Although your smile have gone and your face we cannot touch. We have precious memories of the one we love ❤️ so much.

Recessional

I'm free

I'm Free

Don't grieve for now I'm free.

I'm following a path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard him call.

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A closeness shared, a laugh, a kiss. Oh Yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burden with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much! Great friends good memories, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Lift up your heart and share with me...

God wanted me now..

He has set me Free!

Acknowledgements

The family and friends of Bernard Green would like to thank one and all for their prayers, thoughts and kind expressions of sympathy in their time of bereavement.
