I felt the light of heaven
it was shining down on me,
I heard His voice, He called my name,
“my child, come follow Me;”
There is no pain, there is no hurt
nor sadness anywhere,
In heaven there is joy and love
and I'll be waiting there;
For on the day I left this earth
I felt your many tears,
And now I watch you from above
and keep you very near;
It hurts to be apart from me, but
be patient for the day,
When we meet again in love and peace
when you too come this way.

Doug aka Gutty aka Smokey Joe from Cocomo, was born on September 20th, 1957 in Pierre, SD to Cleveland and Ethel (Little Eagle) Fallis. He was a baby of six brothers and sisters.

Doug went to Crow Creek High School and graduated in May 1975. Doug went to school at the Sioux Empire College in Hawarden, IA obtaining his associates degree in 1982. He joined the US Army National Guard in 1987. He was later honorably discharged.

In 1985 he married the love of his life, LeToy Fleury, aka Momma Fox. To which their daughter, Louise Mae Fallis, was born.

Doug held various positions including Councilman to the Crow Creek Sioux Tribe.

Doug was known for his kindness towards others and his helpfulness to all who needed it. He was genuine and loved his family. He loved to laugh and make others laugh and have fun. He was a Traditional dancer, Sundancer, and Lakota singer.

Doug is survived by his daughter Louise Fallis, six grandchildren, brother Bob (Nikki) Fallis, sisters Linda Fallis and Delores (Virgil) Crowe.

Preceding in his death are parents Cleveland Sr. and Ethel Fallis, brother Cleveland Fallis Jr. and sister Bonnie Drapeaux.
