LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.*

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

*We are deeply appreciative and will be forever grateful for the wonderful outpouring of love, support, expressions of sympathy, and acts of kindness extended to us.
May God's goodness be with each of you.*
Special thanks to the nurses and staff of Spartanburg Regional Hospice Home

Life Profile

Logan Wellsley Cope was born on April 4, 1944, in Saint James, Jamaica to the late Richard Cope and late Maun Lamey. He attended schools in Jamaica and once he came to Spartanburg, SC he began working in textiles as a loom operator. Logan enjoyed watching wrestling and he especially favored Rick Flair, that is until Roman Reigns came along.

Left to cherish his memories are his beloved wife, Clara "Sylvia" Cope of the home; his daughters, Marsha Sherrod of Tampa, FL, Kaolyn "Kaye" Cope, Oklahoma City, OK, Peggy Rice and Lisa Johnson both of Spartanburg, SC; a son, Bobby (Tanya) Smith, Jr. of Long Island, NY; sisters-in-law, Shirley Wilkins of Newburgh, NY and Sarah Wilkins of Newark, NJ; a brother-in-law, Calvin Smith of Wellford, SC; grandchildren, Travis Smith, Shamika (Darnell) Moore, Rodrick Smith, Shanniqua Smith, Anayah Smith, Caitlin Cope, and Deja Sherrod; nine great grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Along with his parents, Logan was preceded in death by a brothers-in-law, McKinley Wilkins and Monroe Smith, Jr.; and sisters-in-law, Marzella Peake Melvin, and Bertha Whyte.

On Wednesday, January 17, 2023, Logan Wellesley Cope, surrounded by his family, peacefully transitioned from his earthly home to his eternal home.
