Acknowledgment

The family of Dolores Minor would like to thank you for your expressions of condolence during their time of loss. Thank you for your kind words of comfort. To each of you, we express our love and gratitude. Wonderful Mother by Patrick O'Reilly God made a wonderful mother, A mother who never grows old; He made her smile of the sunshine, And He molded her heart of pure gold. In her eyes, He placed bright shining stars; In her cheeks, fair roses you see; God made a wonderful mother, And He gave that dear mother to me.

I love you, Momma, and I will miss you very much.

Marsha Minor Wiley

A Celebration of the Life and Legacy of

Dolores Marie Sango Minor

May 7, 1935 - February 28, 2026

“As We Reflect...”

Dolores Marie Sango Minor

Dolores Minor’s book of life was opened on May 7, 1935, in Muskogee, Oklahoma, to Robert Sr. and Arilla Brunner Sango. She was the youngest of eight children. Growing up, Dolores enjoyed all the simple joys and cherished experiences of childhood, surrounded by family and love.

As the pages of her life turned, Dolores accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior, a decision that guided her throughout her life. She graduated from Manual Training High School in Muskogee, Oklahoma, with the Class of 1954.

In 1975, Dolores found the love of her life, Freddie Reo Minor, and they were united in marriage. Four years later, their union was blessed with one daughter, Marsha Ann Minor.

Dolores became a devoted member of Mount Rose Baptist Church under the leadership of Dr. Andrew Phillips Sr. She was an active and faithful servant, singing in the church choir and participating in the Mission Department. She loved attending Sunday School, Bible Study, and evening services, drawing strength and joy from her church family.

Dolores worked faithfully for 32 years in the laundry department at Hillcrest Medical Center, retiring in 2014 at the age of 79. She was known for her strong work ethic and dedication.

In her spare time, Dolores enjoyed working crossword puzzles, watching her favorite television shows, and having heartfelt conversations with friends and family. Although she did not have grandchildren, she adored her beloved grand-dog, Coco, who brought her much joy.

On February 28, 2026, Dolores Minor’s earthly book was closed, and she gained her wings, going home to be with the Lord. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Freddie Reo Minor; and all seven of her brothers and sisters.

She leaves to cherish her triumphant homegoing: her daughter, Marsha Minor Wiley; son-in-law, Frederick Wiley; Blake Minor; Kim Minor; niece Ruby Duckett; Ward Duckett; Vanessa Duckett; Rodney Duckett; Maria Duckett; Delia Gross; Izabella Duckett; Julian Duckett; Priscilla Griffith; Davictor Griffith; nieces Brenda Brewer (Kalamazoo, MI), Annette Campbell and Marion Sango (Charlotte, NC), Nadine Fisher (Battle Creek, MI), Akia Jefferson, Dolan Griffith, India Griffith, Sabrina McCrary, Roxanne Sango, Patricia Dewalt (Battle Creek, MI); along with a host of other relatives, dear friends, and her beloved church family.
