The Day God Took You Home

You never said, “I’m leaving.”
You never said, “Good-bye.”
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn’t go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.

Obituary

MS. BETTY JACKSON, 60, of High Point, NC, entered eternal rest on Tuesday, September 29, 2026, at Atrium Health Wake Forest Baptist-High Point Medical Center.

Betty was born on May 18, 1966, in Marlboro County, SC, to the late Mr. Robert and Mrs. Ruby Lee Quick.

Betty had a generous spirit and a gentle heart that touched countless lives. She had a unique gift for meeting children at their level and making every single one of them feel seen, safe and deeply loved. Passionate about her spiritual journey, Betty wrote and published "DON'T PANIC! PRAY!," a guide on prayer that touched and inspired many readers.

Betty was a member of Chosen Generation Outreach Deliverance Center, under the leadership of Bishop Steven T. Kenan and Pastor Tamara N. Kenan.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sister, Evangelist Mildeen Stevenson, and her brother, Anthony Stevenson.

Betty leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Tasheka Stevenson, Terin Jackson, and Michael Woods, Jr., all of High Point, NC; grandchildren, Jaylyn, Natalyah, Makayla, Ty'Erin, Makiyah, Makinley, Makeira, and Rhylie, all of High Point, NC; siblings, Sarah McFadden, James Stevenson, Loria Stevenson, and Tonya (Kim) Davis, all of High Point, NC; one special uncle, Addison Stevenson, of High Point, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
