

Tyree My Joy

You arrived unexpected and stole my heart, made my path clear.
I lived for you, loved you and always kept you near.

You were my ambition, you were my measure of success;
in you I had it all. No accomplishment too small,
no height too tall, you simply were my everything.

I cannot touch you my love, kiss and hug you tight.

I cannot see that smile that warms my heart.

But you can rest easy and be assured that you
Tyree Johnson will always be my joy, my joy, my joy and light.

Love You Poohbear Forever.

Mom

Obituary

Tyree Eugene Johnson, 32, of Jackson, NJ, known by “Ty” and “Poohbear”, was born on Sunday, December 4, 1983, at Monmouth Medical Center in Long Branch NJ to Tawana A. Johnson and Lapell E. Moore. He departed this life on Wednesday, October 5, 2016.

“Pooh”, as his mother affectionately called him, was raised in Neptune, NJ and was extremely popular in the neighborhood. He was very personable and everyone he had come in contact with had adored him. From picking up groceries to mowing a lawn, Tyree was always willing to give a helping hand with no expectation of anything in return.

Tyree had the most electrifying smile, infectious laugh and was a big time jokester. He will surely be missed by all. He was especially close to his mother. It also gave him great pleasure to spend time with his father; they had developed a good relationship in recent months.

After graduating from Neptune High School, Tyree was employed by the Humane Society of Tinton Falls for three years. He was also employed as a Line Tech for Comcast for 11 years.

Tyree’s two great loves were his animals (dogs, Dallas, Cabo, Pesos, Emmitt, and Chico). They were his family. He had a host of other animals, such as snakes, fish, love birds, geckos, turtles; you name it, and he loved them.

Tyree’s other love was sports. He played recreationally a host of sports from baseball, softball, football and basketball. He was a natural ball handler. Tyree loved the New York Yankees and the Dallas Cowboys. He became a fan of both teams at an early age and remained loyal.

He was predeceased by his paternal grandfather, Milton E. Moore; and his maternal grandfather, Wilbur G. Robinson Sr.

Pooh leaves to cherish his memory his devoted and loving mother, Tawana Johnson; father, Lapell Moore; paternal grandparents, DonJoeann Rucker (Oma) of Neptune, NJ and James Rucker (Opa) of Florida; maternal grandparents, Valencia Miller (Nana) and Christopher Miller (Dad); sister, Erika Moore of Neptune, NJ; brother, Ja’llell Moore of MD; two cousins, Andrea Johnson-Little of GA, and Darren Johnson Jr. of PA (they were raised as siblings); uncles, Vincent Johnson and Darren Johnson Sr. of PA, Christopher P. Miller Jr. of TN; aunts, Patricia (AP) Charleston-Johnson of PA, Wednesday Jones, Jaia Marshall, Tanika Moore-Jefferson of NJ, and Janae Rucker of MD; and a host of great aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and too many others to name, but know he loved all of you very much.
