

ROBERSON

Obituary

Erick Anthony Roberson was born on July 19, 1967, in Cleveland, Ohio, to Rodell and Bernice Roberson.

Known as the life of the party, Erick had an incredible gift for making people feel welcome. He truly never met a stranger. Whether striking up a conversation with someone he had just met or reconnecting with an old friend, Erick had a way of making everyone feel like family. His infectious laugh, quick wit, and genuine interest in others made every gathering a little brighter. Erick filled our days, nights, weeks, months, and years with laughter, spirited conversations, and unforgettable memories.

Above all else, Erick was a devoted family man. His greatest joy came from spending time with those he loved. He was a constant source of strength, encouragement, and unconditional love, always putting his family first. His home and his heart were open to everyone, and the love he gave so freely will continue to live on in the countless lives he touched.

Erick built his career as an over-the-road truck driver, spending countless miles on the highways providing for his family through hard work, dedication, and sacrifice. The road became his workplace, but home was always where his heart belonged. His strong work ethic and unwavering commitment earned the respect of everyone who knew him.

Erick will be remembered not only for his generous heart and larger-than-life personality but also for the compassion, loyalty, and love he shared so freely. His legacy is one of laughter, perseverance, friendship, and family—a legacy that will continue to inspire those who were blessed to know him.

Though his seat at the table is now empty, his stories will continue to be told, his laughter will echo in our memories, and his love will remain forever in our hearts. Erick will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and never forgotten.

The Family

His Journey

*Don't think of him as gone away,
His journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets,
This earth is only one.*

*Just think of him as resting
From the sorrow and the tears,
In a place of warmth and comfort,
Where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing
That we could know today,
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living
In the hearts of those he touched,
For nothing loved is ever lost,
And he was loved so much.*

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

*The Family sincerely appreciates all acts of kindness shown during this time of bereavement. We thank you for your prayers, comforting words, personal visits and calls. We ask that you continue to keep us in your prayers.
May God Bless and forever comfort you.*
