

Letter From Heaven can cafe

I made it here safely, and its beautiful.
I see you every day and know I am proud of you.
I won't be there tomorrow, but please don't cry for me because I am with you every day.
I am in your heart, and you will forever smile.
Keep our memories as a keepsake.
Do not worry, because I know you love me. But know I love you more. Every time you whisper it, I'll multiply it forever.
As each new day begins, please know I miss you so much, even though I am not there.
You will never be cold, because my wings will forever cover you.
Te amo hoy, mañana y siempre.

In Loving Memory...

"He'd give you the shirt off his back – just don't touch his controller."

"Forever full of life, love, and laughter"

Obituary

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of, Jonathan James Perez, 44 from the Bronx, New York, who passed away on October 25, 2025.

March 10, 1981 – the Bronx was blanketed in heavy snow, but for Jeanette Samuel and John Perez, they weren't phased by the storm but instead the kicks of their child. On that chilly day, their world changed forever. Through the storm came a spark – their son, their heart, their soul, Jonathan James Perez. His soul had an illumining essence that can be characterized through the love of his children. Jonathan was genuine, and full of life. He was devoted to his family; he carried love in everything he did. His laughter was contagious, his confidence soared through the skies, and his heart open to all. He found joy in simple things – a good game, a Giants win, and moments spent with his children, who were his greatest pride. Jonathan was known for his kindness; he would give the shirt off his back without a second thought. To many, he was more than a friend – he was the big brother they never had, and a soul impossible to forget.

Jonathan will be lovingly remembered by his mother Jeanette Samuel, children Jonathan Jr and Jaidynn Perez, and their mother Jessica Carro, siblings Brandon and Kaitlyn Perez and their mother Dawn, his aunts, uncles, and cousins. He was preceded in death by father, John Perez, twin daughters, Alejandra- Marie, Jamie-Marie, grandparents Alejandrina and Luis Samuel, Mary and Juan Perez, uncles Luis and Josue D Samuel.
