

To describe my mother would be to write about a hurricane in its perfect power. Or the climbing, falling colors of a rainbow.

Obituary

Joyce Ginyard was born on March 12, 1961, to Eloise Ginyard and Kelly Thomas in Cincinnati, Ohio. Joyce was raised in a strong Baptist home and spent most of her time in the church. She knew the “Word” and loved gospel music.

As Joyce grew through life she achieved many things. One of which she most enjoyed, her Cosmetologist License. Joyce was known for her “Famous Fingerwaves” and did everyone’s hair. She later attended Chatfield College. Joyce loved kids and all kids loved her. She could be called upon to babysit anytime.

Joyce was the “favorite Auntie”! She loved cooking and served on the Kitchen Committee with New Prospect Baptist Church since 2012. She was truly loved by many.

Joyce was preceded in her homecoming by her sisters: Cassandra, Denise (Peggy), Jackie, Marian (Teenie), and special sisters: Janelle and Debbie; her daughter: Nahketha; grandson: Halo and her only brother: Richard; special friends: Vickie Edwards and Rhonda Bolden as well.

Joyce leaves behind to celebrate her life with fond memories: her two sisters: Tracey Siler and Toni Ginyard; children: sons Nick, Larry (Jag), and daughter: Nahiesha (NI); grandchildren: Donielle (Ginyard) Nickira, Shiloh, Logan (Nanna) and Lil Nick. A host of nieces and nephews, extended family, and friends.

Joyce was fun, outspoken, and the life of the party. We all share many memorable moments and experiences with her. Joyce was very grateful for our love and friendship. She will sincerely be missed.
