

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered Joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life has been full, I've savored much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me FREE!

Obituary

Yvonne Elizabeth (Crayton) Clements was born on November 25, 1944, to her father James William Crayton, Jr. and mother Anna B. (Breckinridge) Crayton in Louisville, Kentucky. This is where she spent much of her life attending Central High School in the early 60's and taking secretarial courses at Spencerian College to further her education. She was married to Joseph Clements (all preceded her in death).

Later in life, she found work at Louisville Ladders working on the assembly line, where she would eventually retire and spend most of her time at home with her German Shepherd Lady, out catching fish on a lake or playing Bid Whist with her friends.

Her faith eventually led her to join Lighthouse Missionary Baptist Church under the ministry of Pastor Clarence W. Brown where she stayed a member and would always provide a joyful testimony as she appreciated the journey it took to get her to that place in life.

Yvonne eventually moved to Cincinnati Ohio in 2015 to be with her sister, Zelda (Crayton) White, after the passing of her husband. After being there for some time, she was able to find a new church home at Mt. Zion Church Glendale where she remained a member until the Lord called her home to glory on September 19, 2023.

Yvonne leaves to mourn in her passing: two daughters: Yvette Goodwin Jamison (Robert) and Latanya (Daugherty) Morris; three grandchildren: Tamicka Crayton, LaResha Daugherty, and Justin Morris; great-grandson, Dante Crayton; her sister Zelda (Crayton) White, . She also leaves behind a cousin Robet Holt who was raised like a brother, a half-brother John Walker (Kim), a nephew that she loved as her own James E.L. Crayton, Sr. (Christine), and a host of other nieces and nephews.
