Obituary

Rachael Carnesha Arrington, a beloved daughter, mother, sister, and friend transitioned to eternal peace on January 23, 2025, just days shy of her 47th birthday. Born on January 30, 1978, in Mansfield, Ohio. Rachael brought joy and laughter to everyone around her. She attended Empire Elementary, Sherman Elementary, Simpson Middle School, and Johnny Appleseed Jr. High, ultimately graduating from Mansfield Senior High School. Growing up on Grant Street, she cherished her upbringing and remained deeply connected to her roots.

Rachael was a vibrant spirit who adored sports, particularly swimming. Her love of athletics extended to watching her brothers and her son Titus Arrington plays football where her enthusiastic cheers could always be heard. She embraced life with open arms, reveling in dance, laughter, and the simple pleasures that brought her joy. Rachael believed in the power of peace but was fierce when defending her loved ones. Her contagious laughter lit up the room and brought joy to everyone who knew her.

She is preceded in death by her loving mother Catherine Sue Arrington, sisters Eleanor Williams, Rondala Broaden, and Robin Arrington-Smith, nephew Shaikee Allen, niece Penelope Bluster, cousin Tony Arrington, aunt Ella Broaden, uncles Raymond D. Arrington, Jerry Nesbitt, Stanley Nesbitt, grandparents Lula Mae Morris, Grace L. Arrington, and Robert H. Arrington Sr.

Rachael's legacy lives on through her son Titus Lamarr Arrington, her father Robert H. Arrington Jr. (Veneta), and brothers Robert H. Arrington. IV, Ryan E. Arrington, aunts Carmen Wright (John), Barbara Jenrett, Michele Arrington, Tracey Allison (JB), Lorraine Cannon(Robert), Ruth Arrington-Baylis, Lisa Arrington and Jean Wiggins. Her uncles Joe Nesbitt, Michael Morris, Charles Nesbitt, Richard (Debbie), Rodney (Pamela), Reggie and Randy Arrington. Her nieces and nephews; Peggy Hughes, Nathalie Howard, Michael Williams, Raeon, Rayven, Rayanna, Ramiah, Robreal and Nia Arrington, Kierra Bluster, Jaquan Mosley, great niece, nephews, best friends Tamika Bluster, George Mosley and a host of cousins and friends.
