

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Born on July 22, 1981, in Cincinnati, Ohio, Emirous spent his entire life rooted in the community he loved. Known for his calm demeanor and gentle spirit, he was an introvert at heart but deeply family-oriented. Emirous found joy in the simple yet profound moments of life—whether cheering on the Cincinnati Bengals with unwavering loyalty or taking his children to football games and movies. He had a special way of bringing people together and was always eager to participate in family gatherings or outings.

Emirous is survived by his loving wife, Elondra Sally; his three sons: Emirous Kernall Jr., Eden Kernall, and Eli Sally; his mother Sandra Kernall and stepfather Freddie Johnson; his sisters Dubrina Kernall and Santina Kernall; and his brothers Larry Kernall and Richard Rand. He also leaves behind a cherished extended family that includes his uncle Curtis Kernall; aunts Sherry Kernall, Barbara Burton (affectionately known as Aunt Bob), and Sherrell Mallory; as well as numerous nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends who will forever hold him in their hearts.

A devoted father who prioritized time with his children above all else, he created lasting memories through shared experiences that will be treasured forever. His respectful nature and laid-back personality made him a source of comfort to those around him. Though quiet by nature, Emirous's actions spoke volumes about the depth of his character—he was kindhearted, loving, and always willing to lend a helping hand.
