

YOU NEVER SAID GOODBYE

You never said I'm leaving
You never said Goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
A million times we needed you
A million times we cried,
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly
In death we love you still
In our heart we hold a place
That only you can fill.
It broke our heart to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God took you home.

From her children

REMEMBERING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF SUEZETTE Renee McCrimon EDMOND

Suezette Renee McCrimon Edmonds, born April 24, 1961 in Eastman, Georgia, passed away on July 10, 2026 at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital in Albany, Georgia. Her passing marks the close of a life defined by devoted family ties, unwavering strength, and a deep sense of care for those she loved.

Suezette was a proud mother and a beloved matriarch to her family. She is survived by her children: her daughters, Shannon (Derrick Dawson) Edmond and Mychelle McCrimon; and her sons, Artie Edmond, Bernard Wimberly, and Kennard McCrimon. Suezette's nurturing spirit and love extended to her seven grandchildren mourning her loss and cherishing her memory. Her presence remains a source of comfort and guidance for them.

Suezette is also survived by her sister, Dorothy McCrimmon, whose bond with Suezette was lifelong and deep. Among the wider circle of family, Suezette leaves behind her uncle, Frank Jackson. The many roles she held in the lives of her relatives, be it as an aunt, sister, or grandmother, reflect the breadth of her familial devotion. Her surviving niece, two great nephews, cousins, will remember her warmth, compassion, and the steady support she provided throughout their lives.

Preceding Suezette in death was her beloved mother, Ida Pearl McCimon, whose own legacy of love, perseverance, and dedication to family was carried forward by Suezette.

Born in Eastman, Georgia, Suezette's life journey was rooted in her community and shaped by her connections to family and friends. Her ability to uplift those around her defined her character and left an indelible impression on those who knew her. Whether through encouragement, kindness, or simply her calming presence, Suezette's love reached across generations and relationships.

Her legacy is one of love, resilience, and service to family; a guiding light that will continue to inspire all who were privileged to know her.
