Life Reflections

Theresa Holland was born on July 16, 1953, at KU Medical Center to Floyd Holland and Barbara Jean Holland.

Theresa attended Central High School in Kansas City, Missouri, beginning in 1965. Demonstrating determination and perseverance, she later returned to school and earned her GED. In 1986, she furthered her education by enrolling in Culinary Arts, where she obtained her Culinary Arts License. Pursuing her passion for cooking and entrepreneurship, Theresa opened TT Tots in 1995, a business that reflected her creativity, dedication, and strong work ethic.

Theresa was a devoted member of Sheffield Family Life Center, where she nurtured her faith and maintained a strong relationship with God.

She was united in marriage to James Harold Robinson, who preceded her in death.

Theresa was the glue that held her family together. A God-fearing woman, she was outgoing, loving, and full of life. She will be remembered as a true light—someone who could brighten any room she entered. Known for her straightforward nature and her ability to “tell it like it is,” Theresa lived authentically, boldly, and with unwavering faith.

She was also preceded in death by seven siblings: Craig Williams, Derrick Holland, Sharon Ford, Darlene Egeneo, Stanley Holland, Clifford Sr. Holland, and Michael Williams.

Theresa leaves to cherish her loving memory her four children: Latrice Holland, Aneesah Holland, DeOrion Holland, and LaDale Holland; twelve grandchildren: Marquell, Angineca, Alonzo, Deangelo, Mondane, Dequan, Myia, Aryeonna, Lazhan, Jordan, Caleb, and Laniya; thirty-one great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild. She also leaves behind nine siblings: Linda Dennis, Daniel Holland, Jeffery Holland, Angela Holland, Bridgett Holland, Terry Holland, Debbie Holland, Eddie Holland, and Mike Holland, along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, friends, and all who were blessed to know her.

Theresa’s life will forever be remembered for her faith, strength, honesty, and the light she shared with everyone she encountered.
