Obituary

Dolores Ruth Randall was born on June 4, 1939, in Cleveland, Ohio, to William Randall and Ethel Randall. Dolores had four siblings: David Rease, Warnell Randall, William ("Billy") Randall, and Darnell Randall.

Dolores attended Cleveland Public Schools, where she received her diploma from Glenville High School. She accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age and attended Greater Avery A.M.E. Church in Cleveland.

Dolores worked for Case Western Reserve University Dining Services as Head Hostess for 10 years. She also worked at Stouffer's on the Square for 15 years as Head Hostess. Dolores' passion was doing God's work through ministry to the shut-in, hospitals, and prisons. She carried this passion until her last days, departing this life on June 28, 2026.

Dolores was a very kind and compassionate person who loved her African and Blackfoot Native American culture. She played the African drums and performed African dance routines. Glory to God, our mother gained her wings and joined her parents, Ethel and William Randall; her brothers, David Rease, Warnell Randall, and William "Billy" Randall.

Dolores leaves behind her two sons, Glendon (Monna) Randall and Ephrain Randall; her brother, Darnell Randall; three grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Her Journey

Don't think of her as gone away,
Her journeys just begun.
Life holds so many facets,
This earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting,
From the sorrow and the tears,
In a place of warmth and comfort,
Where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today,
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.

And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched,
For nothing loved is ever lost,
And she was loved so much.

The Lords Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses.

As we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom
the power and the glory.

For ever and ever.

Amen
