

FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Family sincerely appreciates the many acts of kindness expressed during our time of bereavement. Thank you for your thoughts and prayers, personal visits, phone calls, food, cards, flowers, and for your presence here today. Because of all the love and support each of you have shared, our hearts have been made glad and we are sustained and strengthened by the scripture that assures us... 'Blessed are those that mourn; for they shall be comforted'.

The Battle Is Not Your's
2Chronicles 20:15

When times get tough and you start to worry,
just call out to God and see He'll be there in a hurry.

Sometimes you say you can no longer take the pain,
then God shows up and to bring sunshine where there was rain.

God wants you to know that you don't have to fight,
and don't have to shed tears in the lonesome of the night.

He is willing to fight your battle because he knows alone you can't,
he'll lead and you will follow as he takes you by the hand.

Don't walk away or else you will lose,
stand firm and take position,
and see the deliverance The Lord will give to you.

You may say it hurts, because sometimes it will,
but keep going on that journey, you are almost over the hill.

The battle is not yours so put it in God's hands,
and in the end with God's love and mercy it is you that stands.
